Important Notices

In keeping with the Policies and Principles for Admission to the University of Toronto, OISE/UT is dedicated to admitting qualified candidates who reflect the ethnic, cultural and social diversity of Metropolitan Toronto, Ontario and Ontario Schools.

Applications are encouraged from visible minorities, differently abled persons, women in non-traditional subject areas, males interested in primary school teaching, aboriginal persons and native speakers of French.

Admission of International Students

OISE/UT welcomes qualified international students. Efforts are made to meet their special needs insofar as resources permit. International students and others who are not candidates for an Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification must comply with such conditions of admissions as the Faculty Council of OISE/UT may determine.

Changes in Programs of Study and/or Courses

The programs of study that our Calendar lists and describes are available for the year(s) to which the Calendar applies. They may not necessarily be available in later years. If the University or OISE/UT must change the content of programs of study or withdraw them, all reasonable possible advance notice and alternative instruction will be given. The University will not, however, be liable for any loss, damages, or other expenses that such changes might cause.

For each program of study offered by the University through OISE/UT, the courses necessary to complete the minimum requirements of the program will be made available annually. We must, however, reserve the right otherwise to change the content of courses, instructors and instructional assignments, enrollment limitations, pre-requisites and co-requisites, grading policies, requirements for promotion and timetables without prior notice.

Copyright in Instructional Settings

If a student wishes to tape-record, photograph, video-record or otherwise reproduce lecture presentations, course notes or other similar materials provided by instructors, he or she must obtain the instructor's written consent beforehand. Otherwise all such reproduction is an infringement of copyright and is absolutely prohibited. In the case of private use by students with disabilities, the instructor's consent will not be unreasonably withheld.

Criminal Record Screening

The Ontario College of Teachers (OCT) is responsible for the licensing and regulation of the teaching profession in the public interest. In order to provide increased protection for elementary and secondary students in Ontario schools and to help to ensure that teachers are worthy of the trust placed in them by students, parents and colleagues, the College requires that all new teacher education graduates who will be applicants for OCT membership and teacher certification, provide original reports of criminal record checks and an Applicant's Declaration about their suitability for registration.

Enrolment Limitations

The University makes every reasonable effort to plan and control enrolment to ensure that all of our students are qualified to complete the programs to which they are admitted, and to strike a practicable balance between enrolment and available instructional resources. Sometimes such a balance cannot be struck and the number of qualified students exceeds the instructional resources that we can reasonably make available while at the same time maintaining the quality of instruction. In such cases, we must reserve the right to limit enrolment in the programs, courses, or sections listed in the Calendar, and to withdraw courses or sections for which enrolment or resources are insufficient. The University will not be liable for any loss, damages, or other expenses that such limitations or withdrawals might cause.

Person I. D. (Student Number)

Each student at the University is assigned a unique identification number. The number is confidential. The University, through the Policy on Access to Student Academic Records, strictly controls access to Person I. D. numbers. The University assumes and expects that students will protect the confidentiality of their Person I. D. numbers.

Regulations and Policies

The University has several policies which are approved by the Governing Council and which apply to all students. Each student must become familiar with the policies. The University will assume that he or she has done so. Rules and regulations relating to the OISE/UT Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education programs are displayed in this Calendar. Applicable University policies are either fully displayed or listed in the Calendar (see pages 70 - 93).

In applying to OISE/UT the student assumes certain responsibilities to the University and to OISE/UT and, if admitted and registered, shall be subject to the rules, regulations, and policies cited in the Calendar, as amended from time to time.

Satisfactory Evidence of Freedom from Active Tuberculosis

Applicants who receive an offer of admission to the OISE/UT initial teacher education program will be required to submit satisfactory evidence of freedom from active tuberculosis (required by the Ontario College of Teachers) before registration. The test must:

- be done during the 12 months prior to the start of the program
  - clearly show the date(s) when the tuberculin test was administered and include one of the following result(s):
    - a negative tuberculin or 'skin test',
- OR
- a positive tuberculin or 'skin test', followed by a normal chest X-Ray,
- OR
- a normal chest X-Ray
- show the name of the doctor or testing agency
  - be signed and dated by an authorized health professional currently practising in Canada.

NOTE:

1. Immunization cards and self-evaluated test results are not acceptable.
2. Candidates will not be allowed to attend the program if the proof of freedom from active tuberculosis is missing or incomplete or unacceptable to OISE/UT.

History and Function of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto (OISE/UT)

On July 1, 1996, the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE) and the Faculty of Education (FEUT) were integrated to form a new faculty within the university called the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto (OISE/UT). The following is an historical view of each of the two integrated institutions, their previous relationship and the vision and mission of the new institution - OISE/UT.

The Faculty of Education (FEUT), University of Toronto Schools (UTS), and the Institute of Child Study (ICS)

When secondary education in Upper Canada was officially introduced in 1807, qualifications for teachers were ill-defined and professional training was non-existent. Nevertheless, a surprising number of 'educated gentlemen' found their way into the classrooms of the District Grammar Schools. Unfortunately, the supply of these superior pedagogues failed to keep pace with the growth of the population and the subsequent increase in schools. But in spite of the difficulties encountered, no serious attempt to provide teacher training was made for more than half a century.

Beginning in 1858, several experiments involving model schools and training institutes were conducted with the aim of improving the academic and professional qualifications of teachers. None of these endeavours met with any widespread satisfaction, and in 1890 all such operations were supplanted by a provincial school of pedagogy in Toronto. Seven years later this institution was moved to Hamilton and renamed the Ontario Normal College.

In 1906, the training of secondary school teachers was modified drastically when faculties of education were organized at the University of Toronto and at Queen's University. In Toronto, the Faculty offered professional secondary school courses in pedagogy. In order to improve the practical and experimental aspects of its program, the Faculty established, in 1910, the University of Toronto Schools (UTS) to serve as a practice school or a laboratory school. While UTS has consistently offered an excellent academic program, its involvement in the teacher education program of the Faculty of Education has varied greatly over the years.

The Institute of Child Study (ICS) was founded in 1926 as the St. George's School of Child Study, the first university laboratory preschool in Canada. In 1939, it became the Institute of Child Study, the first of the University of Toronto's multi-disciplinary research centres, and in 1971 it became a constituent part of the Faculty of Education.

The previously described pattern of teacher training continued until after the close of World War I. In 1920, it came to an abrupt end when the Faculty at Toronto was designated the Ontario College of Education (OCE), University of Toronto. In the following years the College expanded its program, services, and facilities, and added a number of important departments: The Guidance Centre in 1943 and the Vocational and Industrial Arts Department in 1946.

During a period of forty-five years, the Ontario College of Education was the sole institution in the province for the preparation of secondary school teachers. In 1965, the situation altered with the opening of Althouse College of Education, University of Western Ontario. Since then several other faculties of education have been established in Ontario.

In 1966, the departments of Graduate Studies and Research were transferred to the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE). In the same year a new agreement for the operation of the Ontario College of Education was made between the Minister of Education and the University of Toronto, establishing a College Council and an Advisory Board. By the same agreement, the name was changed to The College of Education, University of Toronto. The Educational Media Centre was added in 1966, the Department of Computer Studies in 1968.

Effective July 1, 1972, the College was formally designated the Faculty of Education, University of Toronto (FEUT). In 1976, ICS began offering a two-year child development-based initial teacher education program. Establishment of the Laidlaw Research Centre at ICS in 1992 further strengthened the link between research and teacher education.

In 1978 new postgraduate programs leading to the degrees of Master of Arts/Science in Teaching - M.A.(T.) and M.Sc.(T.) - were approved. The unique feature of these programs has been their emphasis on the teaching and research aspects as well as the academic content of the subject discipline. In 1979-80 an M.A.(T.) program in English and an M.Sc.(T.) program in Mathematics were initiated. The M.Sc.(T.) program was discontinued in 1992.

In January 1995, the Royal Commission on Learning in its final report, For the Love of Learning, recommended "that the consecutive program for teacher education be extended to two years". In February 1995, the Ministry of Education and Training endorsed this recommendation and called for proposals for two-year, initial teacher education pilot programs to begin in September 1995. In response to this call a program based on six key images of the effective teacher was approved by FEUT Faculty Council and the university's Academic Board. The program was in effect for the 1995-1997 period only and was available to up to 60 Elementary students and up to 60 Secondary students.

Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE)

OISE was established in 1965 by a special act of the Ontario legislature to provide graduate level programs, to conduct research and disseminate its findings, and to engage in field development activities in education.

As a graduate school of education affiliated with the University of Toronto, OISE provided most of the master's-level and nearly all of the doctoral programs in education in the province. OISE had also been a major centre of educational research and development in Canada. OISE's exclusive focus on graduate studies, research, and development in education provided a unique setting for faculty, professional research staff, and students to address significant educational problems and issues.

OISE offered graduate programs leading to the M.Ed., M.A., Ed.D., and Ph.D. degrees through its seven academic departments. Most courses were offered on campus, but some (about 25 per year) were offered through OISE's Field Centres or by distance education modes of delivery. While the vast majority of programs were in English, OISE offered a small number of French language courses within a French Studies focus.

History and Function of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto (OISE/UT)

Although OISE administered all admission procedures, program regulations, financial awards, and degree requirements, its admission procedures and programs were subject to the regulations of the university's School of Graduate Studies (SGS); graduating students received University of Toronto degrees.

OISE conducted major research and development projects through its internal research centres, its departments, and its Field Centres located across the province. In addition to its faculty, OISE had a professional research staff to assist in carrying out its research and development mandate.

Over the thirty years since its establishment, OISE developed a reputation as one of a small number of research and postgraduate education institutions in the world with a broad mission and mandate and with the resources to implement the full range of that mission. From its inception, its faculty and students undertook studies addressing educational theory, policy and practice from early childhood to adult and higher education, in local, national, and international settings (including a Francophone setting), reflecting the scholarly traditions of many disciplines. OISE had also made a significant contribution to the development of critical theory in education and to feminist studies in education. Through its Field Centres, OISE maintained an important presence throughout the province.

The Relationship Between OISE and FEUT

In general, OISE and FEUT each pursued their mandates and activities separately from 1965 on. Some FEUT faculty members who held membership in the School of Graduate Studies were involved with OISE's graduate programs, particularly in the areas of child study, curriculum and educational administration.

In 1983, the University of Toronto and OISE struck a joint committee to explore the possibility of integrating FEUT and OISE. The committee, chaired by Professor Lorna Marsden, recommended that FEUT and OISE be integrated as an affiliate of the University of Toronto, i.e. with its own Board of Governors and direct funding from the province. Neither OISE nor FEUT fully supported this recommendation and it was not pursued. However, a tripartite Joint Council on Education was established (OISE/FEUT/UT) to explore areas of common interest.

In 1985, the provincial government's Treasurer announced his intention to transfer OISE's budget to the University of Toronto. Discussions broke down and the government did not pursue the matter. In 1986, OISE and the University entered into negotiations toward a possible integration of OISE and FEUT under the general framework of the Marsden Committee's report. Although there was no integration at that time, a new ten-year Affiliation Agreement between OISE and the university was negotiated and signed early in 1989.

Under the new Affiliation Agreement, there was a stronger working relationship than at any time in the past. The Agreement included the establishment of the Joint Centre for Teacher Development, the establishment of a Joint Committee on Education (with representation from OISE, FEUT and SGS), a review of the libraries of both institutions, and mechanisms for increasing collaborative research and the involvement of FEUT faculty in graduate education.

The Establishment of OISE/UT

In February, 1994, the Minister of Education and Training wrote to the U of T and to OISE inviting the two institutions to explore formally the possibility of full integration. The Minister stated his belief that, through combining the objectives and academic resources of FEUT and OISE, the work of both institutions would be enhanced in the areas of educational research, graduate instruction, teacher education, dissemination of knowledge and the improvement of educational practice among professionals in the field.

Consequently, the two institutions entered into discussions to explore the possibility of integration, and both institutions named external consultants to provide advice regarding a number of aspects.

On December 16, 1994, an Agreement was signed by the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education, the Governing Council of the University of Toronto, and the Ministry of Education and Training. The terms of the Agreement outlined the broad terms for the integration of OISE and FEUT, including ICS and its Laboratory School and UTS, into a new professional faculty of education under the Governing Council of the University of Toronto, and addressed its mandate, mission, administration, governance and resources.

The new faculty, named the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto (OISE/UT), began operations on July 1, 1996. It is one of the largest faculties at the University and one of the largest faculties of education in North America. It enjoys full status as a major organizational unit of the University with all the rights and responsibilities pursuant to which individual university faculties hold such status. Its departments are members of Division II (Social Sciences) of the University's School of Graduate Studies.

Vision

OISE/UT strives to be an effective, interactive learning community which, through research, scholarship, and excellent instruction, provides the theoretical knowledge base for education as a domain of advanced study and professional practice. OISE/UT is a centre of excellence for graduate studies, research, field development, initial and continuing teacher education in Ontario. It also is a central and integral part of the University of Toronto with collaborative programs, joint appointments and linkages to a variety of professional faculties and departments.

Mission

OISE/UT is committed to the study of education and matters related to education in a societal context in which learning is a life-long activity. Its mission emphasizes equity and access and the improvement of the educational experiences of people of all age levels and backgrounds. It includes partnerships with others to address a wide array of problems, drawing upon the insights of academic disciplines and professional perspectives. OISE/UT is dedicated to national pre-eminence and international distinction in graduate studies, initial and continuing teacher education, research and field development in education, and to providing exemplary leadership within and outside the province of Ontario.

Summary of Programs Offered by OISE/UT

Calendar pertains to the Initial Teacher Education Programs only. Information regarding the Continuing Education Program and the Graduate Studies Programs can be obtained from the addresses listed herein.

Initial Teacher Education Programs

Initial teacher education programs provide training and experience valuable at all levels of education, and in a wide variety of careers for which teaching skills and proficiency in communication are required. These programs lead to the Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification (O.T.C. of Q.).

Bachelor of Education Degree

Four concentrations are offered:

- Primary/Junior
- Junior/Intermediate
- Intermediate/Senior
- Technological Studies

Diploma in Technical Education

This program is for candidates who have specialized knowledge and training in technological areas and who wish to teach in their area of expertise in the Intermediate and Senior divisions.

Master of Arts in Child Study and Education

Two concentrations are offered:

- Primary Education
- Special Education

This program leads to the Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification - Primary/Junior.

Master of Teaching in Human Development and Curriculum

Two concentrations are offered:

- Primary/Junior Education
- Junior/Intermediate Education

The Continuing Education Program

The Continuing Education Program for Teachers offers, through part-time study, an extensive range of courses leading to additional qualifications approved by the Ontario College of Teachers for holders of the Certificate of Qualification and Certificate of Registration.

OISE/UT offers teacher education at several levels. These are summarized below. This

Teachers who have received their teacher education outside of Ontario, who have been directed by the Ontario College of Teachers to take professional courses may apply for admission to Basic Divisional Qualification courses or basic level Technological Studies courses only. Such candidates must first attend an orientation/information session at OISE/UT and are required to submit evidence of an acceptable level of proficiency in oral and written English as detailed on pages 70 - 72.

The Continuing Education courses offered in the Summer session and the Winter evening session, depending on resources and demand, are as follows:

- Basic Divisional Qualification courses (Primary, Junior, Intermediate, Senior)
- One-session courses
- Three-session courses
- Honour Specialist (General Studies)
- Technological Studies (Basic, Advanced)
- Honour Specialist (Technological Studies)

Graduate Studies in Education

Graduate programs leading to M.Ed., M.A., M.A.(T), M.T., Ed.D. and Ph.D. degrees are offered through OISE/UT's five departments:

- Adult Education, Community Development and Counselling Psychology (AECDCP)
- Curriculum, Teaching and Learning (CTL)
- Human Development and Applied Psychology (HDAP)
- Sociology and Equity Studies in Education (SESE)
- Theory & Policy Studies in Education (TPS)

With the exception of the M.A. in Child Study and Education and the Master of Teaching in Human Development and Curriculum, graduate degrees in education at OISE/UT do not carry Ontario teacher certification.

Laboratory Schools

•The University of Toronto Schools (UTS) is a day school for students from grade 7 to university entrance, selected by competitive examination. The Ontario curriculum leading to university entrance is followed, with opportunities provided for enrichment, acceleration, independent study and experimentation. Resources of the school are available to staff and students of OISE/UT for teaching practice, demonstration, and experiment.

Bachelor of Education/ Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification Program

- Primary/Junior (P/J)
- Junior/Intermediate (J/I)
- Intermediate/Senior (I/S)

(For Technological Studies, see pages 44 - 51)

Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification
(O.T.C. of Q.)

Candidates who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents of Canada or who are entitled to obtain employment in Canada as teachers, and who meet all requirements of the programs, may be recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for a Certificate of Qualification (O.T.C. of Q.) which qualifies them to teach in Ontario schools.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must hold an approved degree from a university whose accreditation is acceptable to the University of Toronto, conferred not later than the fall convocation in the year of registration at OISE/UT. An approved degree program must include at least 45 credits, a credit being defined as one-fifteenth of a school year.

Preference is given to those who have attained a high academic average in a four-year degree program and to those with relevant experience which offers evidence of a special interest in teaching. Preference may also be given to those who have selected teaching subjects for which there is a high demand. Applicants must also have met the English Language Proficiency Policy requirements.

Documentation

Each applicant must submit the following:

- A completed Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC) application form with the required application and service fees attached.
- an official transcript of all degree credit courses completed to date of application.
- evidence of an acceptable level of proficiency in oral and written English as described in the English Language Proficiency Policy (detailed on pages 70 - 72).
- a completed OISE/UT initial teacher education Applicant Profile.
- a photocopy of a Canadian birth certificate or, in the case of a person not born in Canada, documents showing the basis upon which the candidate is present in Canada including date and place of birth.
- a photocopy of a certificate of change of name, where applicable.

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The program consists of 7 components (A-G below), for a total of 5.0 course weights. Candidates are required to register for the Internship and for the appropriate course(s) in each of the other 6 components. Candidates must successfully complete all 7 components of the program in order to be recommended for the Bachelor of Education degree and the Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification.

- A Curriculum and Instruction (2.0 course weights)
- B Teacher Education Seminar (1.0 course weight)
- C Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development (0.5 course weight)
- D School and Society (0.5 course weight)
- E Related Studies (0.5 course weight)
- F Practicum (0.5 course weight)
- G Internship (0.0 course weight)

In addition to the regular in-faculty program delivery, a variety of school-based program delivery options exists, which will be outlined to candidates upon acceptance into the Primary/Junior, Junior/Intermediate, or Intermediate/Senior concentration of the program.

NOTE: Course Weights/Hours

- one full course (1.0) = a minimum of 72 contact hours
- one half course (0.5) = a minimum of 36 contact hours
- one quarter course (0.25) = a minimum of 18 contact hours

A) Curriculum and Instruction (C & I)

Candidates must select one of the following concentrations and the respective C & I course(s). These courses consist of broad methodology courses in the Primary/Junior and Junior/Intermediate programs, and subject-specific methodology courses in the Intermediate/Senior program. Prerequisites, if any, are stated in the course descriptions.

- Primary/Junior (junior kindergarten to grade 6)
- Junior/Intermediate (grades 4 to 10)
- Intermediate/Senior (grades 7 to 12)

Primary/Junior (P/J)

The C & I component of this concentration is the course Primary/Junior Education EDU1420 (2.0).

Junior/Intermediate (J/I)

The C & I component of this concentration comprises two courses:

- Junior/Intermediate Education EDU1450 (1.5)
- one Intermediate course from those listed below (0.5).

Dramatic Arts EDU1071

The Elementary Education STEP Program

The Student Teaching Experience Program (STEP) is a compulsory part of the Primary/Junior and Junior/Intermediate programs. STEP provides opportunities to observe and work with associate teachers during weeks that are not part of the Practicum or Internship sessions. Depending on the option in which they are enrolled, candidates have different days or blocks of STEP. STEP days are forerunners to the Practicum sessions in that candidates are in a classroom for a series of STEP days preceding a Practicum session in the same classroom.

Intermediate/Senior (I/S)

The C & I component of this concentration comprises two courses from those listed below (1.0 course weight each).

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

An Introduction to Second Language Acquisition Processes EDU5513 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will allow teacher candidates at the primary, junior, intermediate and senior levels to understand second language acquisition processes. We will focus on 1) individual differences in second language learning; 2) theories of language learning; 3) learner language in second language acquisition; and 4) comprehension and interaction in second language teaching. Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning. This course will respond to the needs of all teacher candidates, either because they are preparing to teach French or international languages OR because they will teach students from diverse cultural and linguistic backgrounds.

An Introduction to Workplace, Organizational and Economic Democracy EDU5111 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course provides an introduction to workplace, organizational and economic democracy. Both case studies and relevant theory will be considered. Much of the material in the course will be interdisciplinary.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Anti-Racist Education Studies EDU5510 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will focus on understanding what integrative anti-racism means for teacher education. It seeks to combine theory with educational and political practice. This intent is to develop and understand the philosophical basis for anti-racism practice by reviewing educational initiatives in this area. The course will provide student teachers with an understanding of race and difference as providing the contexts for power and domination in society. Among issues covered are the place of race and identity in schooling and how teachers can deal with racism using the principles/ideas of anti-racism practice.

A Survey of Children's Literature for Elementary Classrooms EDU5511 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course is designed to acquaint students with a wide variety of significant children's literature and with the authors and illustrators who create them. It will also assist students in developing the ability to make informed choices, taking into account the age, ability and interests of the children, and to enhance students' knowledge of theoretical approaches and instructional strategies for using literature throughout the elementary school curriculum in ways that enable children to:

- 1) realize the pure joy a fine literary work brings;
- 2) become increasingly sensitive to and appreciative of good literature – poetry, prose and informational material;
- 3) develop an understanding of human behaviour, ideals and values; and
- 4) become increasingly literate in their own use of oral and written language.

Authority and Freedom in School EDU5512 (Course Weight 0.5)

Is 'compulsory education' a contradiction? Can an ideal of individual freedom be supported? Can authority be justified? Does the ideal of individual freedom preclude the exercise of authority? Should the school enforce a prevailing moral code? Can a school be amoral? This course will attempt to get at the roots of ethical valuing and thereby confront one with the moral dimension of the school.

BUSINESS STUDIES Intermediate/Senior

The Business Studies program includes study in the following areas: Accounting, Data Processing, Information Management and, Marketing and Merchandising. Candidates must select any two of these areas of specialization.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Business subjects. Consideration will be given to equivalent field experience and related post-secondary education.

•Accounting EDU1340
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course will deal with teaching strategies, curriculum development, performance objectives, individualization, evaluation, and the establishment and maintenance of an effective classroom learning environment. Innovative instructional techniques along with the application of lateral thinking skills to the teaching of accounting will be emphasized. Candidates will be given the opportunity to examine various computer packages.

•Data Processing EDU1350
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course will help to prepare students for the teaching/learning process and the development of computer studies curriculum and resource material. Students will examine effective teaching strategies, write instructional objectives, develop evaluation techniques for use in a computer course and learn procedures for creating an effective learning environment. The course examines the use of a programming language as a vehicle of communication and the methods of teaching a variety of computer topics such as software applications packages, structured programming, computer concepts, documentation procedures, and computers in society. Facilities are provided for hands-on experience with microcomputers.

•Information Management EDU1370
(Course Weight 1.0)

The development of innovative and effective techniques of teaching modern business communications and office procedures, with emphasis on keyboarding, information processing, notemaking and Business English. Proficiency in word processing must be demonstrated.

•Marketing and Merchandising EDU1360
(Course Weight 1.0)

An examination of marketing policies and techniques, with emphasis on retail organization and operations. Candidates will study teaching strategies, curriculum design, and innovative instructional techniques.

Chemistry - See Science

Children's Literature Across the Curriculum
EDU5113

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course is designed to encourage an appreciation of children's literature and its pivotal role in the life and socialization of children. Classes will include lectures, small group discussions, reading and writing in a variety of genres.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

CLASSICAL STUDIES
Intermediate/Senior

•Greek EDU1210 (Course Weight 1.0)

(Not offered in 2000/2001)

This course may be taken only in conjunction with Latin EDU1200. For course content see Latin EDU1200.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Greek.

•Latin EDU1200
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course introduces candidates to the philosophy, methodologies and issues related to the teaching of Latin in the intermediate and senior divisions. A variety of instructional and assessment strategies, and approaches to curriculum design will be explored. The course will focus on Latin vocabulary, grammar and syntax, comprehension, derivation and oral reading of prose and poetry. There will also be an emphasis on the social and cultural aspects of Roman civilization. The course will be delivered through a variety of approaches including reflective and active learning.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Latin.

Classroom Management: Building on the Basics
EDU5211

(Course Weight 0.25)

Possibly the greatest challenge teachers face is the complex task of organizing and managing classrooms. Classroom management and organization refers to all of the things that an effective teacher does to organize students, space, time and materials so that instruction in content and student learning can take place. Research in this area attests to the fact that classroom management skills are of primary importance in determining teachers' success. In keeping with the Teaching Practice component of the Standards of Practice of the Teaching Profession, this course will help you learn how to establish a safe and supportive environment, how to establish and maintain standards for student behaviour, how to organize time and space to enrich the learning environment and how to use classroom management skills to enhance learning. This course will use as its base the David Keirseay and True Colors theory of classroom management and discipline and the works of Glasser, Dreikurs, Gordon and Ginott.

Community Development: Innovative Models EDU5115 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course involves the study of innovative models of community development in such areas as housing, childcare, healthcare including mental health services, social service provision, and education, as well as models of community economic development. There is a combination of case studies (both Canadian and international), papers on alternative policies, and critical social analyses both of why there is a need for community development and the significance of this phenomenon for a broader social-change strategy. The community development strategies utilized in the course are based primarily on non-profit and cooperative approaches.

Computer Science Intermediate/Senior EDU1040 (Course Weight 1.0)

This course focuses on discourses in education and culture around computers and technology, in which teachers produce curricula and spaces where diverse student populations can engage in the production of computing knowledge. Knowledge of computing is built by students, teachers, communities, cultures, and globally through relationships and everyday and social/cultural experiences. Preservice teachers, in taking up multiple orientations and pedagogical approaches to the teaching of computers, will explore issues around computer use in secondary schools - e.g. privacy, pornography, relationships, and censorship in cyberspace, conceptual/imaginative interpretations and limitations in computerized environments, and problem-oriented and case study approaches to computing. Facilities are provided for hands-on experience with computers.

Prerequisites: Two full post-secondary courses in computing, or approved field experience.

Creating a Caring Inclusive Classroom EDU5515 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will examine the theory, basic research, interactive process and methodology of the cooperative learning approach for building a collaborative culture in the classroom. The content, teaching process and strategies will focus on a critical exploration of the Tribes TLC approach. Teachers of all grade levels and all subject areas may use the course concepts and methods. Participants will learn how to implement a three-stage group development process to establish a positive learning environment in their classroom. In addition, participants will learn how this approach provides a foundation for learning and children's development. Included is an examination of a process involving the incorporation of collaborative skills, a framework for cooperative learning, principles of brain-compatible learning and processes for effective reflection (process) questions that enhance academic achievement. This approach actively involves students in their own learning, assures respect for diversity, cultures, races, abilities and multiple intelligence, develops caring and support among students, fosters the development of resiliency and engages students in problem solving and decision making.

Creating a Learning Organization EDU5112 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course is a study of theory, research, and experience based on a view of organizations as contexts for learning and as learning systems. The course will employ a variety of learning strategies including participant and instructor presentation, organizational simulation and experiential learning, guest speakers, and field study. Students will gain an appreciation of approaches to the integration of work and learning for continuous development, the assumptions upon which action learning is built, and the centrality of developing their own critical reflection skills as agents for change.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Cross-Cultural Counselling Skills for Beginning Teachers EDU5518
(Course Weight 0.5)

Ontario schools, faced with changes in the composition of student population and more demands for greater accountability, continue to strive to implement programs to address the needs of all students. Teachers are expected to perform more than their traditional roles and serve as coaches, counsellors and guides for students. This course is intended to provide techniques or skills that a beginning teacher may employ when confronted with complex situations involving students for which personal guidance and counselling interventions are an appropriate course of action. The course will also assist teacher candidates in developing resource materials for dealing with multiethnic and multicultural student populations.

Data Processing - see Business Studies

Design and Technology

(Not offered in 2000/2001)

EDU1171 Intermediate

(Course Weight 0.5)

EDU1170 Intermediate/Senior

(Course Weight 1.0)

The philosophy of contemporary technological studies; interpretation of guidelines; a review of existing programs; objectives, approaches and evaluation; preparation of lesson plans and teaching units; class management. Laboratory problems in material science and fabrication are assigned to demonstrate the teaching of skills and management of project assignments. Practice is provided in a variety of teaching methods, using materials commonly found in schools to establish safe and efficient habits in shop work. Drawing and design are introduced in the planning of projects. A background in industrial arts or technical subjects in secondary school, or related courses from community colleges, or work experience is advisable.

Developing a Personal Philosophy of Education EDU5520

(Course Weight 0.5)

A variety of modern views on aims and methodology in education will be studied with special attention paid to the underlying philosophies. Conflicting viewpoints will be weighed, and students encouraged to develop their own positions.

Developing Skills of Inquiry, Design and Communication in Science and Technology EDU5517

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates to develop:

- 1) understandings about the nature of products and practices in science and technology and how they relate to each other and society and the environment and
- 2) expertise enabling them to conduct scientific investigations and invention projects of their design leading to conclusions apparent to them. Candidates should be able to teach science and technology in ways that more accurately reflect how scientists and technologists do their work, what limitations they have in developing knowledge and how science and technology may affect each other and society and the environment. Candidates will, as well, be able to assist students with project work in science and technology and, where it exists, science fairs and expositions.

Diversity and Social Justice Issues in Physical Education, Recreation and Sport EDU5116
(Course Weight 0.5)

Feminist and antiracist analyses will be central to the course. With a specific focus on pedagogical implications, readings and discussion will focus on the experiences of disadvantaged social groups including girls and women, ethnic minorities, people living in poverty, lesbians and gay men, people with disabilities, and various sociocultural contexts for physical education, recreation and sport, including schools, universities and communities.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Drama Strategies for Effective and Affective Teaching EDU5519
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course is designed for teacher candidates interested in integrating the approaches used in drama education with their classroom practice in order to foster spontaneity, feeling, and intelligence in learning. Since classrooms are places of inquiry, we need to communicate effectively and create positive learning environments for our students. By using drama strategies across the areas of the curriculum, we can explore the “arts of education”, identifying effective teaching skills and investigating some of the ways we can engage the interests of our students in their own intellectual and emotional development. No prior experience in drama is required.

Dramatic Arts Intermediate EDU1071

(Course Weight 0.5) (Not offered in 2000/2001)
Drama as a means of personal development and as a learning technique. The philosophy and practice of drama in education; the possibilities for conceptual development and expansion of the imagination through the art of drama; the exploration of sensory awareness, movement improvisation, speech, and oral interpretation.

Dramatic Arts Intermediate/Senior EDU1070
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course focuses on the philosophy and practice of drama in education with a particular focus on the cognitive, social, and artistic development of the older child and adolescent through both curricular and extracurricular programs. Teaching techniques introduce students to the use of movement and voice, as well as developing an awareness of and practice in drama as an art form. Activities are wide-ranging in their approaches to improvisation, textual analysis, interpretation, scripting. Students will plan individual lessons and units as well as consider the purpose and design of a variety of assessment methods.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Drama, or approved field experience.

Economics Intermediate/Senior EDU1080
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course introduces candidates to the methodologies and issues relevant to teachers of economics in Ontario. Instructional strategies, assessment techniques and curriculum designs that respect the combined role of teachers and learners are examined. Special emphasis will be placed on the use of Information Technology and other media to link theory with practice and foster critical thinking. Course delivery methods include interactive sessions, mini-lectures, demonstrations, individual and team presentations, guest speakers and field studies. Practical assignments challenge candidates to apply educational pedagogy to classroom realities.

Candidates are encouraged to develop a personal professional philosophy about teaching economics, based on critical and reflective practice.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Economics.

Education and the Cultural Community EDU5522
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course will explore parallel education programs in cultural institutions such as museums, galleries, libraries, and heritage organizations. Aspects of museum education, audience development, experiential learning, and teaching in alternative educational settings will be considered in relation to schools, childhood and adolescent learning theory, curriculum, and broader issues within cultural studies. The course will capitalize on the students' various discipline backgrounds and their subsequent practicum experiences in schools.

Education and Work EDU5118
(Course Weight 0.5)

An introduction to critical contemporary studies of relations between the realms of learning and work. Formal, nonformal and informal learning practices will be examined, as will paid employment, household labour and community service work. Special attention will be devoted to the connection between underemployment and lifelong learning.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

English (First Language) Intermediate EDU1101
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course engages students in the practices, resources and theories of English/Language Arts to prepare them for teaching in the intermediate grades. Explorations of written, visual and virtual texts such as literature, media, and technology define the content. Since language is fundamental to thinking and learning, students engage in reading, writing, viewing, talking and representing strategies as the practical grounding for understanding and reflecting on English/Language Arts practices, and for creating sound language curricula. The content, methodologies, evaluation and skill requirements of the course will be linked to Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities guidelines.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in English.

English (First Language) Intermediate/Senior
EDU1100

(Course Weight 1.0)

This course engages students in the practices, resources and theories of English/Language Arts to prepare for English teaching at I/S levels. Written, visual and virtual texts such as literature, media and technology define the content. Topics include teaching textual forms, writing processes, classroom language and media/technology. Students will read, write, view, talk and represent their understanding of textuality to reflect on English/Language Arts practices and theories, as preparation for informed curriculum planning and implementation. The content, methodologies, evaluation and skill requirements in English/Language Arts will be linked to Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities guidelines.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in English.

Environmental Field Studies – Primary/Junior
EDU5214

(Course Weight 0.25)

This course deals with the development, implementation and evaluation of field studies for integration into primary and junior programs. Topics include: nature study, the planning and administration of field trips in and around the community, schoolyard ecology, habitat restoration, the investigation of freshwater and terrestrial ecosystems, the planning and administration of extended field trips, and resource management simulations (e.g. Project Wild, Focus on Forests). Environmental ethics and the infusion model for environmental education will also be examined.

Environmental Science Intermediate/Senior
EDU1380

(Course Weight 1.0)

Consideration will be given to the aims and objectives of environmental education, curriculum design, unit and lesson planning, and methods of teaching. Areas of study include freshwater, soil, and terrestrial ecology, agriculture, forestry, environmental issues, environmental ethics, urban and rural planning, energy conservation, and population ecology. Field experience will be provided.

Prerequisites: Three full university courses in Science, Geography or Environmental Science, or approved field experience.

ESL Across the Curriculum EDU5524
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates at the primary, junior, intermediate and senior levels develop the skills, knowledge and dispositions to meet the needs of English second language learners in mainstream classes. We will focus on 1) methods and techniques for adapting content-based teaching for ESL students; 2) integrating the formal aspects of English (grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation) into content-based teaching; 3) integrating strategy training and language awareness into mainstream programs; and 4) developing sensitivity to cultural and linguistic diversity. Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning.

Family Studies Intermediate
EDU1161 (Course Weight 0.5)

(Not offered in 2000/2001)

This course focuses on Family Studies expectations as well as those within several other intermediate level disciplines. Students will explore the nature and significance of Family Studies for young adolescents, and design lessons and curricula encompassing: practices which affirm young adolescents, foster community-building, and are inclusive of diverse learners; approaches to integrated curriculum; experiential teaching-learning practices; strategies for assessment and evaluation, classroom management and safety; utilization of technology. Through ongoing reflections linking course experiences, field studies, and current research, students will build professional portfolios which document their growth as teacher-learners.

Prerequisites: Three full university courses in Family Studies.

Family Studies Intermediate/Senior EDU1160
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course explores principles and practices in Family Studies. As foundation for lesson and curriculum design, students will examine personal experience, professional practice, and current research, encompassing the evolving nature of the field, including integrated curriculum; alternative perspectives on teaching and learning; approaches to community-building, and inclusion of diverse learners; assessment and evaluation strategies; management and safety issues; utilization of technology; reciprocal school, community, and societal impact. Linking course experiences and field studies, students will critique theories from self, others and literature. Students will build professional portfolios, documenting their growth as teacher-learners.

Prerequisites: Three full university courses in Family Studies.

French (Second Language) Intermediate
EDU1111

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates develop the skills, knowledge and dispositions expected of beginning core French teachers at the intermediate level. The course will focus on

- 1) methods and techniques to facilitate the teaching/learning of listening, speaking, reading and writing as interrelated processes;
- 2) integrating grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, culture, language awareness, learning strategies, media and technology and a variety of assessment strategies into lesson plans and long-term teaching units which reflect current Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities guidelines;
- 3) methods and techniques for teaching in extended and immersion French programs.

Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning. This course is offered in French.

Prerequisites: Five full university courses in French and demonstrated proficiency in speaking and writing the language.

French (Second Language) Intermediate/Senior
EDU1110

(Course Weight 1.0)

This course will help teacher candidates develop the skills, knowledge, and dispositions expected of beginning core French teachers at the intermediate and senior levels. We will focus on

- 1) methods and techniques to facilitate the teaching/learning of listening, speaking, reading and writing as interrelated processes;
- 2) integrating grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, culture, language awareness, learning strategies, media and technology, literature and a variety of assessment strategies into lesson plans and long-term teaching units which reflect current Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities guidelines;
- 3) methods and techniques for teaching in extended and immersion French programs.

Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning. This course is offered in French.

Prerequisites: Five full university courses in French and demonstrated proficiency in speaking and writing the language.

Gender Equity in Schools and Classrooms
EDU5532

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course encourages prospective teachers to think about aspects of their work that have implications for gender equity. Examples of topics include: gender and our own school memories; access, participation and achievement; how schools are organized around gender; classroom treatment of girls and boys; coeducation vs. single-sex education; notions of masculinity and femininity; sexual harassment in schools; teachers' career paths; women's studies and feminist pedagogy. Issues are placed within a framework that considers gender roles and social change, feminist theories and questions about "equality" and "difference", and how gender operates together with other social divisions and designations such as race, class and sexual orientation.

Geography Intermediate EDU1441

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course facilitates the development of understandings and strategies for using the concepts and skills of geography to help students learn. Particular emphasis will be given to the learning needs of young adolescents. Candidates design and develop lessons and curriculum materials that are appropriate for diverse learners, and for teaching different kinds of geographic social science content, both across the curriculum and as a separate subject.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Geography.

Geography Intermediate/Senior EDU1440

(Course Weight 1.0)

This course facilitates the development of understandings and strategies for using the concepts and skills of geography to help students learn. Candidates develop lessons and curriculum materials that are appropriate for diverse learners and for teaching different kinds of geographic social science content, including international and cross-cultural material.

Consideration is given to issues related to current curriculum reform. The course includes inquiry models, field study, the application of technology in learning, feedback-oriented assessment, and a variety of instructional techniques. Assignments involve practical applications and critical reflection.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Geography.

Geology Intermediate/Senior

(Not offered in 2000/2001)

The values, objectives, and organization of programs for earth science and geology. Instructional techniques and procedures for use in laboratories, classrooms, museum galleries, and the field will be examined. The achievement and measurement of educational goals for earth sciences will be investigated.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Geology.

German - See International Languages

Gifted Education: Working with Students of High Academic Ability EDU5529 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will encourage participants to

- 1) deepen their understanding of the nature of giftedness as an exceptionality,
- 2) acquire a good working knowledge of theory-based and empirically-validated ways to adapt classroom instruction to meet the educational needs of developmentally advanced students, and
- 3) learn about encouraging gifted-level development in diverse learners. Questions will be addressed paying particular attention to the practical implications of DEFINITION: What is giftedness/creativity? How does it develop? IDENTIFICATION: When are students gifted/creative? How can they be identified? And PROGRAMMING: What curriculum adaptations are required, and when? Theories and research will be reviewed from various disciplines, including cognitive science, developmental psychology, educational psychology, and special education. Applications to both integrated and congregated gifted classroom settings will be considered.

NOTE: Open only to Intermediate/Senior candidates.

History Intermediate EDU1151
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course has a dual focus. First, it prepares candidates to deal with the value, issues, and challenges of teaching intermediate History. Second, it helps candidates develop a repertoire of diverse teaching and assessment methods appropriate for Intermediate students. Course activities focus on Canadian History (as prescribed by the provincial guidelines), but links will be made to other histories, and to other subjects. Course methods involve lectures, demonstrations, interactive sessions, small group activities, and field study. Assignments promote the connection of theory and practice through practical applications of the methods studied, and through reflections on practice.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in History.

History Intermediate/Senior EDU1150
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course will introduce candidates to the methodologies and issues relevant to teachers of History in Ontario in the intermediate and senior divisions. A variety of teaching/learning strategies, assessment techniques and approaches to curriculum design will be explored. Adapting the history program to meet the needs of a diverse student body will be highlighted. The course will also introduce candidates to new directions for reforming the History curriculum. Course methods include lectures, demonstrations, interactive sessions, small group activities and field studies. Assignments will require candidates to develop practical applications and to link theory and practice.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in History.

EDU5120 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course provides both preservice and graduate students with an overview of persistent and recurring themes in the history of Canadian Education. It presents students with an opportunity to delve into the interdependent relationship of the history of education to the larger field of the history of Canada, linking these historical relationships with current policies and practices. Among the themes to be explored are the interplay of gender, race, class, ethnicity and religion. These themes are explored within a regional historical perspective, examining how they play out in the Atlantic, Quebec, Ontario, and the West. Integrated within the course are the historiography of Canadian education and an historical analysis of the ongoing criticism of Canadian education. The course is delivered over the Internet, using the computer conferencing capacities of Web KF as a platform.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

History of Women and Education in Canada
EDU5122 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course examines a variety of places in which women's educational experiences have taken place in nineteenth- and twentieth-century Canada. We will discuss the gendered nature of formal educational settings, such as schools, vocational institutes, colleges, and universities, looking at girls' and young women's experiences within these settings. We also will examine the many informal sites in which girls and women have been 'educated' in the meanings of femininity: the family and household, the workplace, religious and other voluntary organizations, and the various levels of the Canadian state. This course will explore women's experiences in these multiple settings, the moral and social regulation of women's lives, and the ways in which gendered identities have been shaped in the past. In discussing these areas, we will pay particular attention to the links between gender relations and those of class, race, ethnicity, region, and, where possible (given the current state of the Canadian historiography), sexual orientation. We will also explore the variety of ways in which women have cooperated or negotiated with, or at times resisted, the institutions, individuals, groups, and processes that have attempted to define dominant meanings of 'womanhood.'

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Home Education as an Alternative to Public Education? EDU5117
(Course Weight 0.5)

Home education, also known as home schooling and home-based learning, is an increasingly common educational method and context for elementary and secondary age students within Canada and the USA and beyond. As a phenomenon (that is, a movement and practice) it has subtly influenced the face of public education and profoundly impacted its laws. The focus of this course is on: first, exploring the characteristics and history of the home education movement in North America; second, examining the practices and processes of parent-teachers; and third, investigating the intersection of home education and public education. The intention is to both critique and challenge the assumptions of public and home education while providing a forum for the commencement of scholarship on the topic. The expectation is for course participants to complete a project of their choosing which may include one or more of the following: a review of literature, a personal account of home education, a critical essay, a proposal for a research project or a mini (pilot) research project.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Individual and Society Intermediate/Senior
EDU1270

(Course Weight 1.0)

This course introduces candidates to the issues around and methodologies for teaching Social Science/Contemporary Studies courses in Ontario. A range of teaching methodologies, assessment approaches, and curriculum designs will be examined and developed. This course will also focus on issues and questions related to current curriculum reform efforts. Course methods include lectures, demonstrations, interactive sessions, small group activities, and field studies. Assignments will require candidates to prepare practical applications and to link theory and practice. Special emphasis will be placed on the use of information technology and other media in the classroom in order to foster critical thinking.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Psychology, Sociology or Anthropology.

Information Literacy and the Curriculum
EDU5521

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course provides a resource-based framework for integrating the curriculum subjects with appropriate resources. Emphasis will be on the use of the school library information centre in both elementary and secondary schools (whether it be an electronic or print based environment). Highlights include:

- 1) the process of developing integrated strategies to access, evaluate and use appropriate print and electronic resources,
- 2) the process of integrating Information Literacy skills with the curriculum K-12,
- 3) modeling how to develop the connections between curriculum, resources and collaborative partnerships,
- 4) modeling how the teacher-librarian can be and should be a valuable partner in the learning environment, and
- 5) focusing on the opportunities for knowledge building in a school environment – web-based strategies in developing critical search techniques to develop the most efficient methods of finding appropriate materials; strategies for evaluating web-based resources.

INTERNATIONAL LANGUAGES Intermediate/Senior

German EDU1140 (Course Weight 1.0)
Italian EDU1190 (Course Weight 1.0)
Spanish EDU1310 (Course Weight 1.0)

These courses will help teacher candidates develop the skills, knowledge and dispositions expected of beginning teachers of international languages. Although the emphasis will be on school programs at the intermediate and senior levels, the courses will also expose students to community-based programs for intermediate-level learners. Courses focus on:

- 1) methods and techniques to facilitate the teaching/learning of listening, speaking, reading and writing as interrelated processes;
- 2) integrating grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation, culture, language awareness, learning strategies, media and technology, literature and a variety of assessment strategies into lesson plans and long-term teaching units which reflect current Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities guidelines;
- 3) multi-level classes. Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning.

Prerequisites: Five full university courses in the target language and proficiency in speaking and writing the language.

The Internship consists of field-based experience. It allows candidates to deepen and broaden their skills and knowledge in terms of the Standards of Practice for the teaching profession developed by the College of Teachers.

NOTE: Course number and course weight are not applicable to the Internship.

Introductory Conflict Resolution for a Democratic Classroom EDU5218 (Course Weight 0.25)

This short course introduces concepts and strategies for involving diverse students in practicing skills for participation in pluralist democracy, in particular the management conflict. Participants will describe, try out, and discuss a range of approaches to helping students to improve their capacities for communication, conflict resolution, problem solving, equitable participation in decision-making, and autonomous self-discipline. Equally important, readings and analytical discussions will help each participant to locate those strategies in relationship to their own long-range goals, values, and skills as developing teachers. Activities will be built around two central ideas: conflict (its value for learning and its management or resolution at the classroom level) and democracy (facilitating the development of diverse 'students' into effective 'citizens'). The course uses a workshop format, and is open to candidates who will teach at the primary, junior, intermediate, and secondary levels.

Issues and Curriculum Development in Aboriginal Education EDU5534 (Course Weight 0.5)

Culturally appropriate education and innovative Aboriginal programming are the keys to the success of Aboriginal Peoples' aspirations to develop, sustain, and reclaim their perspectives and rights in areas such as self-government and cultural and spiritual philosophies and practices. This course will assist beginning teachers to develop strategies for integrating Aboriginal education perspectives into curriculum design specific to subject areas.

Internship

Issues in International and Global Education
EDU5536

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course investigates contrasting perspectives of international and global education and their representation in elementary and secondary school curriculum in Canada and other parts of the world. Inquiries into and critical analyses of various teaching and learning strategies, curriculum resources, and school-based initiatives used to nurture global and international understanding will be addressed. Participants will have opportunities to integrate global and international themes such as human rights, social justice, cultural diversity, citizenship, economic globalization, technology, and environmental sustainability into their curriculum design work and teaching practice.

Italian - See International Languages

Junior/Intermediate EDU1450
(Course Weight 1.5)

The Junior/Intermediate Curriculum and Instruction course will enable teacher candidates to understand and apply the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary for designing and constructing effective programs that meet the diverse needs and interests of every student. Teacher candidates will examine instructional approaches and perspectives appropriate for teaching students in the Junior/Intermediate divisions (grades 4-10) in Ontario schools, aligned with the Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities curriculum guidelines. Emphasis will be placed on a high level of participation in course activities, including seminars, discussions, workshops, demonstrations, field work, reflective practice, research, and group assignments. Classroom organization and management, assessment and evaluation, and information technology will be integral components of curriculum studies. Teacher candidates will participate in field experiences with partner schools throughout the year in order to facilitate the interrelationship of practice and theory.

Latin - See Classical Studies

Managing Conflict in Classrooms and the School Workplace EDU5538

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course is an in-depth examination of concepts and strategies for facilitating the constructive management of conflict in classrooms and schools. First, participants will learn and develop a range of approaches to helping students improve their capacities for communication, conflict resolution, problem solving, equitable participation in decision-making, and autonomous self-discipline. Second, participants will strengthen their capacities for understanding and handling conflict with other adults in the school workplace, such as diverse colleagues and parents. Activities and discussions will be built around two central ideas: conflict (its value for learning and its management or resolution at the classroom, school, and board levels) and democracy (facilitating the development of diverse 'students' and effective 'citizens'). The course uses a workshop/seminar format. Each participant will build their capacity to evaluate their own skills and to plan educational and communicative strategies in relationship to their own long-range goals, values, and skills as developing teachers. Attention will be given to diverse school contexts at the primary, junior, intermediate, and secondary levels.

Marketing and Merchandising - see Business Studies

Mathematics Intermediate EDU1221
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course is designed to prepare participants to teach students mathematics at the Grade 7-10 level in a thoughtful and interactive way. Participants will explore a variety of teaching techniques which are useful in teaching and assessing today's students as they experience the current mathematics curriculum.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Mathematics. It is recommended that candidates have studied the following areas at the secondary or post-secondary level: analytic geometry, calculus, linear algebra, statistics, and problem solving.

Mathematics Intermediate/Senior EDU1220
(Course Weight 1.0)

A consideration of mathematics education at the intermediate and senior levels, including discussion of objectives, teaching methods, instructional materials, testing and evaluation, and selected topics from the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Guidelines.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Mathematics. It is recommended that candidates have studied the following areas at the secondary or post-secondary level: analytic geometry, calculus, linear algebra, statistics, and problem solving.

Models of Teaching EDU5542
(Course Weight 0.5)

There are many powerful instructional strategies used by teachers that invite particular kinds of learning and assist students in becoming more effective learners. This course is designed to enhance one's understanding of how teaching repertoires are constructed and used in classrooms through an investigation and analysis of various teaching strategies, including concept attainment, direct instruction, cooperative learning and independent/group inquiry. Connections will be made between these theoretical orientations and their practical application in secondary school curriculum disciplines. This course will complement basic teaching strategies introduced in curriculum and instruction courses

Music Enrichment for the Elementary Classroom Teacher EDU5523
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course explores topics that promote a deeper personal understanding of musical skills and knowledge than can be covered in the regular music component. Topics include: reading music, key signatures, time signatures, developing the singing voice, conducting the primary and junior choir, selecting repertoire and making connections in music to the rest of the curriculum. Participants will receive a package of resource material that is keyed directly to the Ontario Curriculum, Arts (Music).

NOTE: This course is not open to Music Education specialists or candidates enrolled in Music-Intermediate or Music Intermediate/Senior, Instrumental or Vocal.

MUSIC INTERMEDIATE
(Course Weight 0.5)

Candidates may select only one of the following:
Instrumental Music EDU1231
Vocal Music EDU1241

•Instrumental Music EDU1231

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Instrumental Music or demonstrated proficiency in brass, winds and strings.

•Vocal Music EDU1241

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Music, or appropriate background.

These courses investigate approaches to music learning, teaching, and assessment through vocal and instrumental performance, conducting, listening, analysis and creative problem solving; and incorporate personal experience with music and technology (MIDI) and media arts.

Candidates will develop a repertoire of diverse teaching and assessment strategies appropriate for Ontario students in grades 7-10. Current music education philosophies, Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities policy and best practices from the field will be the basis for the designing of curriculum lessons and units. Assignments involve practical applications of methodology and frequent personal reflections on music teaching.

MUSIC INTERMEDIATE/SENIOR
(Course Weight 1.0)

Candidates may select only one of the following:
Instrumental Music EDU1230
Vocal Music EDU1240

•Instrumental Music EDU1230

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Instrumental Music or demonstrated proficiency in brass, winds and strings.

•Vocal Music EDU1240

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Music, or appropriate background.

These courses investigate approaches to music learning, teaching, and assessment through vocal and instrumental performance, conducting, listening, analysis and creative problem solving; and personal experience with music and technology (MIDI) and media arts. Candidates will develop a repertoire of diverse teaching and assessment strategies appropriate for Ontario students in grades 7-12. Current music education philosophies, Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities policy and best practices from the field will be the basis for the designing of curriculum lessons and units. Assignments involve practical applications of methodology and frequent personal reflections on music teaching.

Perspectives on Adult Education EDU5222
(Course Weight 0.25)

A study of adult education programs offered by public, private and volunteer agencies. Emphasis will be on the role of the teacher in planning, implementation, and evaluation. Characteristics of adult learners, adult relationships and leadership, and training as a component in organizational development will be discussed.

Physical and Health Education Intermediate
EDU1251

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course of study prepares future teachers to design and deliver contemporary intermediate level (grades 7-10) physical and health education programs. It is consistent with the national and provincial trend towards de-emphasizing competitive team sports and focuses on wellness and the process of guiding youngsters to develop the knowledge, skills and attitudes that lead one to become physically active for a lifetime. Participants relate social, cultural, economic and political factors to teaching and student learning and their ability to work collaboratively within the school setting, systems and the community.

Physical and Health Education
Intermediate/Senior EDU1250
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course of study prepares future teachers to design and deliver contemporary Intermediate/Senior level (grades 7-12) physical and health education programs. Teacher candidates will experience effective methods to teach movement patterns, motor skills, and team concepts so that their students will enjoy success in physical activities throughout their lifetime. They will learn to deliver active living health concepts through various teaching methods so their future students will develop better decision-making abilities with regard to their own health. Participants will understand and employ various teaching approaches which acknowledge both the unique growth of individual students and also the sequential stages of learning. Participants will also explore, practice, and evaluate safe action while teaching, coaching, and supervising physical and health education activities.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Physical and Health Education. Consideration will be given to equivalent field experience.

Physics- See Science

Politics Intermediate/Senior EDU1260
(Course Weight 1.0)

This course explores contrasting images of political education in democratic contexts with special attention to curriculum perspectives and instructional practices used in intermediate and senior Politics courses in secondary schools in Ontario. A variety of learning methodologies, assessment approaches and curriculum design practices will be examined and developed. Special attention will be given to issues and questions related to 'education for citizenship' as it is addressed in the intermediate Civics course, senior Politics courses, and across the curriculum. Course methods include lectures, demonstrations, interactive sessions, small group activities, independent and group investigations, and field studies. Assignments will require candidates to prepare practical applications for Politics courses and to think critically and reflectively about the links between theory and practice.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Political Science.

Practicum EDU4010
(Course Weight 0.5)

The practicum consists of two main components: 1) orientation to schools, with a focus on school culture and school community; and 2) classroom practice related to the candidates specific program.

Teacher candidates are assigned, during fall and winter practicum sessions, to schools or other settings approved by the Ontario College of Teachers, for a minimum of fifty days of combined observation and practice related to these components. As well, candidates may be involved in additional field activities connected to their program through the year.

Primary/Junior Education EDU1420
(Course Weight 2.0)

The Primary/Junior curriculum course will enable teacher candidates to understand and apply the knowledge, skills and attitudes necessary for designing and constructing effective programs that meet the diverse needs and interests of every student. Teacher candidates will examine instructional approaches and perspectives appropriate for teaching students in the Primary/Junior divisions (K-6) in Ontario schools, aligned with the Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities curriculum guidelines. Emphasis will be placed on a high level of participation in course activities, including seminars, discussions, workshops, demonstrations, field work, reflective practice, research, and group assignments. Classroom organization and management, assessment and evaluation, and information technology will be integral components of curriculum studies. Teacher candidates will participate in field experiences with partner schools throughout the year in order to facilitate the interrelationship of practice and theory.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) EDU5224
(Course Weight 0.25)

This course examines the principles of PLAR and how learning that occurs outside of school is translated into school achievement. Candidates will explore the utilization of PLAR by means of applying these principles to their own learning.

Professional Ethics in Teaching EDU5544
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course aims to integrate the following three purposes through a combination of seminar-style discussions, lectures, small group exercises and presentations:

- 1) to acquaint students with past and current theoretical/philosophical knowledge in the field of applied educational ethics; the moral/ethical dimensions of teaching will be thoroughly explored,
- 2) to build on the practicum component of the program; since ethical complexities underlie the daily realities of teaching, ethical issues, conflicts and moral dilemmas will be considered through the use of case studies describing practical situations. Cases may deal with ethical situations arising in such areas as professional relations with colleagues; implementation of administrative policies, curricular choice; student evaluation; discipline and the enforcement of school rules/norms; dealing with parents and the community,

3) to address the influence of the Ontario College of Teachers with specific emphasis on (a) the Standards of Practice, a values-based document; (b) the mandated but not yet developed Code of Ethics; (c) the Regulation on Professional Misconduct.

Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development EDU3506
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course focuses on the psychological principles of learning and development in childhood and adolescence, with particular emphasis on their relevance and application to schooling. Its goal is to introduce students to key psychological concepts, such as intelligence and motivation, and their interrelations with the diverse developmental characteristics of the learner. Students will also be encouraged to consider the independent and interactive roles of the student, the family, the school, and society in the learning process.

Religious Education Intermediate/Senior EDU1280
(Course Weight 1.0)

Primarily intended to prepare teachers of Religious Education in Roman Catholic secondary schools, the focus of the course is the discipline of Religious Education and not religious doctrine. This course examines contemporary theories and issues of pedagogy, analyzes present guidelines and support materials, and addresses teaching models and assessment practices relevant to the field of Religious Education.

Prerequisites: Five full university courses in Theology or Religious Studies.

School and Society EDU3508
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates develop a critical awareness of the intersections among schools, classrooms, communities, and society within the changing context of the learning environment. The course addresses the varieties of students who enter the classroom in terms of their diverse social origins, cultures, identities, and social status. The course helps new teachers understand the ways in which their professional work (inside and beyond the classroom) helps prepare these diverse students to be active participants in a changing society. It engages participants in an examination of the purposes of education, education policy, and of teachers' responsibility to work productively with school colleagues and other adults to achieve equitable access, experiences, and outcomes for all students.

SCIENCE

•Biology Intermediate/Senior EDU1470 (Course Weight 1.0)

Designed to prepare teachers of science in the intermediate and senior divisions (grades 7-12), this course deals with the aims and expectations of the Ontario science curriculum, with particular emphasis on the skills of lesson and unit planning, laboratory work and safety, classroom management in a lab setting, teaching strategies and assessment. The second half of this course provides an introduction to the pedagogical concepts, skills and resources needed for successful and effective teaching of the grade 11 and 12 biology courses. The course also explores how science, technology, society and environment (STSE) perspectives can be integrated into biology curriculum.

•Chemistry Intermediate/Senior EDU1480 (Course Weight 1.0)

Designed to prepare teachers of science in the intermediate and senior divisions (grades 7-12), this course deals with the aims and expectations of the Ontario science curriculum, with particular emphasis on the skills of lesson and unit planning, laboratory work and safety, classroom management in a lab setting, teaching strategies and assessment. The second half of this course provides an introduction to the pedagogical concepts, skills and resources needed for successful and effective teaching of the grade 11 and 12 chemistry courses. The course also explores how science, technology, society and environment (STSE) perspectives can be integrated into chemistry curriculum.

•Physics Intermediate/Senior EDU1490 (Course Weight 1.0)

Designed to prepare teachers of science in the intermediate and senior divisions (grades 7-12), this course deals with the aims and expectations of the Ontario science curriculum, with particular emphasis on the skills of lesson and unit planning, laboratory work and safety, classroom management in a lab setting, teaching strategies and assessment. The second half of this course provides an introduction to the pedagogical concepts, skills and resources needed for successful and effective teaching of the grade 11 and 12 physics courses. The course also explores how science, technology, society and environment (STSE) perspectives can be integrated into physics curriculum.

•Science - General Intermediate EDU1301 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course is designed to prepare teachers of science in the intermediate division (grades 7-10). It explores the teaching of selected units in all five strands from the Ontario Science and Technology Curriculum guideline. Attention is paid to the skills of lesson planning, laboratory techniques, teaching strategies, and assessment and resources, through workshops, lectures and lab activities.

•Science - General Intermediate/Senior EDU1300 (Course Weight 1.0)

Designed to prepare teachers of science in the intermediate and senior divisions (grades 7-12), this course deals with the aims and expectations of the Ontario science curriculum, with particular emphasis on the skills of lesson and unit planning, laboratory work and safety, classroom management in a lab setting, teaching strategies, and assessment. The second half of this course provides an introduction to the pedagogical concepts, skills and resources needed for successful and effective teaching of the grade 11 and 12 physics, biology and chemistry courses. The course also explores how science, technology, society and environment (STSE) perspectives can be integrated into the secondary curriculum.

Social Studies: Democratic Citizenship Education? EDU5119 (Course Weight 0.5)

Preparation for democratic citizenship – linking the individual to social decision-making – is a central goal of public education. But what is this citizenship, and who are truly seen/heard to be citizens? Meanings of citizenship, and their implications for education are neither self-evident nor static. Diverse individuals, cultures, and nations understand democracy in different ways, and political space is gendered, so reasonable people disagree about how one might “teach” for democratic citizenship. For example, what parts are played by conflict, criticism, gender and sexual identities, human rights, and moral or political controversy in such curriculum? This seminar will consider contrasting frameworks for understanding, doing, and evaluating citizenship education from an international perspective, and examine the relationships between school experience and other cultural, political, and social-structural influences. Particular attention will be given to formal curriculum, especially in the social studies. Participants will learn to analyze and to design educational experiences in light of research literature and their own citizenship goals.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Spanish - See International Languages

Teacher Education Seminar EDU6000 (Course Weight 1.0)

This course focuses on the connections among the candidates' professional courses, the practicum, and their personal experiences. The course provides opportunities for candidates to synthesize their learning in these areas in order to develop: an understanding of the process of becoming a teacher; a personal identity as a teacher, and a foundation for continuing professional growth as an individual and as a member of the teaching community.

In the Primary/Junior and Junior/Intermediate programs, the Teacher Education Seminar will focus on individual and collaborative processes (e.g., portfolio assessment, action research, computer conferences) that promote an integrated and informed understanding of teaching and learning through a variety of lenses, such as equity and diversity. Directed field experiences with contributions from educators in the partnership districts will be emphasized.

In the Intermediate/Senior program, the Teacher Education Seminar provides a context and reinforcement for studies undertaken in the professional courses and the practicum, including: principles of assessment and evaluation; effective learning environments and classroom management; special education; Standards of Practice for the teaching profession; and approaches both for promoting diversity and equity in school programs, and for addressing discrimination.

Teachers' Work: Classrooms, Careers, Cultures and Change EDU5121 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will draw upon sociological perspectives and techniques to study the work situation of teachers. Teachers will be considered as individuals, in their classroom roles, as colleagues in workplace cultures, and as members of an occupation. These topics will be set as the context of the social role of education and of contemporary social and educational issues and debates.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Teaching in French Immersion EDU5552 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates develop the skills, knowledge and dispositions expected of beginning French immersion teachers at the primary, junior, intermediate and senior levels. We will focus on

- 1) methods and techniques for content-based teaching in immersion;
- 2) integrating the formal aspects of French language teaching (grammar, vocabulary, pronunciation) into content-based, immersion teaching;
- 3) integrating culture, strategy training, language awareness into immersion curricula. Candidates will be involved in reflective and active learning. This course is offered in French.

Prerequisites: Five full university courses in French and demonstrated proficiency in all aspects of communicative competence in French. An extended stay in a francophone milieu is highly recommended for non-native speakers of French.

NOTE: This course does not lead to teaching certification for FSL.

Teaching Literature: The Perspectives of Writer and Reader EDU5531
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course, taught by a prize-winning novelist, will explore the relationship between writing and reading fiction. The first part will include the study of how writers write, and enter the writer's perspective to consider some of the elements of fiction: character, plot, emotion, and dialogue. Classroom approaches will be constructed that enable students to discover how to handle these elements in their own writing. The second part will consider reading as illuminated by the practice of writing. We will study a Shakespeare play, a nineteenth century novel, a modern teenage novel, and some short stories by Alice Munro. The course will draw on psychological and literary research on how people respond to fiction, and create together a theory of the teaching of literature for intermediate and senior school students.

Restrictions: Open only to Intermediate/Senior candidates.

Theories and Practices of Alternative Education and Schooling EDU5527
(Course Weight 0.5)

Through an analysis of various theoretical works on alternative education and their implementation, teacher candidates will explore the history and continued viability of non-traditional approaches to pedagogy, curriculum design and the structure and content of schooling. The course will include presentations by teachers, students, parents and community members involved with various alternative programs and visits to selected program sites. Both elementary and secondary alternative programs will be studied.

Visual Arts Intermediate EDU1011
(Course Weight 0.5)

Lectures, seminars, studio workshops, action research, and guest speakers will enable candidates to expand their understanding and appreciation of visual arts experiences, and gain confidence in their ability to deliver appropriate and challenging studio, art history, critical thinking, and aesthetics activities at the senior elementary or junior secondary level (grades 7 to 10). Topics include: art education philosophy; implementing Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities curriculum policy and expectations; instructional methods and strategies; authentic assessment and practical evaluation strategies; artistic growth and adolescent development; design concepts; curriculum integration; lesson and unit planning; health and safety practices; managing art materials and the classroom environment; and use of community resources.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Visual Arts or post-secondary equivalent. Candidates must have studio-oriented experience.

Visual Arts Intermediate/Senior EDU1010
(Course Weight 1.0)

Lectures, seminars, studio workshops, action research, and guest speakers will enable candidates to expand their understanding and appreciation of visual arts experiences, and gain confidence in their ability to deliver appropriate and challenging studio, art history, critical thinking, and aesthetics activities at the secondary level. Topics include: art education philosophy; implementing Ontario Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities curriculum policy and expectations; instructional methods and strategies; authentic assessment and practical evaluation strategies; artistic growth and adolescent development; design concepts; media arts and technology; lesson and unit planning; health and safety practices; managing art materials and the classroom environment; use of community resources; and the teacher's personal artistic development.

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Visual Arts or post-secondary equivalent. Candidates must have studio-oriented experience.

Writing, Reading, Talking and Learning:
Discourse Relationships in the Classroom
EDU5123

(Course Weight 0.5)

This course is for teachers interested in language practices – both oral and written – in middle school/secondary classrooms. We will examine language on several levels: as an instrument for learning and making sense of new knowledge, giving “voice” to learners, building communities, social, cultural and gendered conditions, and cultivating newcomers into particular disciplines. Class readings, the language of and in our class and classrooms represented through text and video (such as the British Oracy Project tapes and student learning logs) will support our inquiries and lead toward (re)conceiving a theoretical framework for structuring language practices and strategies in schools.

NOTE: This course is available to both graduate and B. Ed. candidates. Classes continue to meet during the Orientation/Practicum.

Youth Popular Culture and Schooling EDU5556
(Course Weight 0.5)

This course attempts to characterize the complex world of social problems in which teachers and students learn. We will explore the experiences of youth sub-cultures drawing from raves, house, and heavy metal parties; the use of techno, rap, hip-hop and reggae music sub-cultures; drugs, fashion and its relationship to anorexia; and the relationship between youth in shopping malls and school hallways. Also to be explored is the role of the media; how it has imagined or constructed youth as a particular community with shared interests, and how young people resist these stereotypes in school, families, and communities creating independent representations of their own lives.

Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education/ Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification Program

- Technological Studies

entitled to obtain employment in Canada as teachers and who meet all requirements of the program, may be recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for a Certificate of Qualification (O.T.C. of Q.). This qualifies the holder to teach technological subjects in the Intermediate and Senior divisions of Ontario schools.

Bachelor of Education Degree and Diploma in Technical Education

The degree of Bachelor of Education will be awarded to candidates who hold an approved degree from a university whose accreditation is acceptable to the University of Toronto, and who successfully complete a program leading to an Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification, (with qualifications in Technological Studies). An approved degree program must include at least 45 credits, a credit being defined as one-fifteenth of a school year.

The Diploma in Technical Education will be awarded to candidates who successfully complete a program leading to the above certificate and qualifications, but who are ineligible for the Bachelor of Education degree.

The degree of Bachelor of Education will be awarded to holders of the Diploma in Technical Education who, subsequent to receiving this Diploma, submit to the Registrar of OISE/UT proof of having been granted an approved degree from a university whose accreditation is acceptable to the University of Toronto. Only those who received the Diploma in Technical Education after 1975 are eligible for the Bachelor of Education degree.

Admission Requirements

Applicants must meet all four of the following admission requirements:

1. Secondary school graduation, or its equivalent.
2. An acceptable level of proficiency in oral and written English as described in the OISE/UT Teacher Education English Language Proficiency Policy (detailed on pages 70 - 72).

Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification (O.T.C. of Q.)

Candidates who are Canadian citizens, or permanent residents of Canada or who are

3. One of:
  - Five years of skilled wage-earning business or industrial experience in the Technological Studies area for which you are applying (see page 47),
- OR
  - a combination of post-grade 12 education related to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying, and skilled business or industrial experience totalling at least five years. The latter must include at least two years of skilled wage-earning experience in the selected Technological Studies area, of which no fewer than sixteen months must have been spent in continuous employment,
- OR
  - at least 3700 hours of skilled wage-earning experience and successful completion of a post-secondary education program, acceptable to the Ontario College of Teachers and which includes at least 24 months of academic studies related to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying. This wage-earning experience need not be continuous employment.
4. Competence in one Technological Studies area at both the basic and related advanced level. Please refer to the list of areas on page 47. See also the section on page 47 concerning the Technical Proficiency Examination.

Selection Criteria

All applicants who satisfy the requirements outlined in the previous section will be considered for admission. Selection will be influenced by the number of applicants and the level of qualifications which they present for consideration.

Preference is given to those applicants who have a relevant three-year diploma or equivalent from a Polytechnical Institute or a College of Applied Arts and Technology or a relevant current Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Trade Certificate of Qualification (C of Q).

Documentation

Each applicant must submit the following:

1. A completed Ontario Universities' Application Centre (OUAC) application form with the required application and service fees attached (submitted to the Application Centre in Guelph, Ontario).

2. Official transcripts from secondary school, a College of Applied Arts and Technology, a Polytechnic and/or University where applicable. If a transcript does not clearly indicate the type of diploma/degree received and the date received, a photocopy of the actual diploma must be submitted.

NOTE: Even if you have a university degree or college diploma, you are required to submit a transcript showing your high school courses and proof of high school graduation.

3. A completed Technological Studies Profile.
4. Documented proof of skilled wage-earning experience.
  - Work experience must be supported by original letters or official documents from a supervisor, personnel manager, and/or other persons in authority who would be familiar with your work, skills and responsibilities. These letters or documents must be on company letterhead which shows the company address, and must be specific as to the nature of work and experience (providing specific statements of the skills used in the position), as well as years and months of duration (start and end dates, typical hours per week).
  - In the event that a company is no longer in business and the forgoing is not available, you must provide an original sworn statement, witnessed by a commissioner of oaths, attesting to the specific nature of work and experience (providing specific statements of the skills used in the position), as well as years and months of duration (start and end dates, typical hours per week). This must be accompanied by at least two supporting documents which provide evidence of your association with the employer (such as a letter of reference, a formal job description or tax records).
  - Self-employed applicants must provide an original sworn statement, witnessed by a commissioner of oaths, attesting to the specific nature of work and experience (providing specific statements of the skills used in the position), as well as years and months of duration (start and end dates, typical hours per week). This must be accompanied by a letter from your accountant, a letter from at least one major supplier of materials, at least one letter from a major client, and a copy of your business license.

- Work experience which cannot be documented in an acceptable manner cannot be considered.
5. Documented proof of formal training and skills acquisition prior to the beginning of skilled employment.
    - A Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Certificate of Qualification (C of Q) can satisfy this requirement. This must be accompanied by details of the examination showing final mark. If your work experience is in a trade which requires a C of Q, then you must submit both the C of Q and details of your examinations. Photocopies are acceptable.
    - An official transcript from a post-secondary institution as described in item 2 above can satisfy this requirement if the studies are directly related to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying and if your work experience is not in a trade which requires a C of Q.
  6. Evidence of an acceptable level of proficiency in oral and written English as described in the OISE/UT Teacher Education English Language Proficiency Policy (detailed on pages 70 - 72).
  7. A photocopy of a certificate of change of name, where applicable.
  9. A photocopy of a Canadian birth certificate or, in the case of a person not born in Canada, documents showing the basis upon which the candidate is present in Canada including date and place of birth.

NOTE:

- If you have completed courses or certificates relevant to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying, you may submit documentation of these qualifications for consideration.
- Applicants who receive an offer of admission to the OISE/UT initial teacher education program will be required to submit satisfactory evidence of freedom from tuberculosis before registration (required by the Ontario College of Teachers). See page 4 for further details.
- Criminal record screening is required for certification by the Ontario College of Teachers. See page 4 for further details.

Acceptable Work Experience

- Work experience must be skilled, in a formalized employment situation and in the Technological Studies area for which you are applying.
- To be considered “skilled”, work experience must have been undertaken after completion of a formal and defined period of training and skills acquisition in the Technological Studies area for which you are applying. Typically, work experience is considered to be “skilled” after you have obtained a Certificate of Qualification or diploma (minimum 2 year program) from a College of Applied Arts & Technology (or equivalent from a polytechnic institute or university which is relevant to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying).
- If you do not have a Certificate of Qualification or a diploma from a College of Applied Arts & Technology (or equivalent from a polytechnic institute or university which is relevant to the Technological Studies area for which you are applying, then you must submit detailed evidence of equivalent training which occurred prior to the commencement of skilled employment.
- Work experience must be at the journeyman level as it relates to a trade license or a Certificate of Qualification.
- If you have submitted transcripts of a diploma or degree in order to fulfill a combination of work experience and academic requirement (see following section), then the work experience must be skilled and completed after the academic program was completed.
- Teaching experience is not considered “work experience” as intended here.
- Applicants from outside Canada should have some Canadian work experience.

NOTE: Applicants should be aware that assessment of work experience by OISE/UT is for admissions purposes only. The Ontario College of Teachers is not obliged to accept our assessment of your work experience and will make its own evaluation for certification purposes.

Notes on Work Experience & Academic Criteria

- 5 years of work experience is required if you have an Ontario Secondary School Diploma, or the Honour Graduation Diploma (or equivalent standing as determined by the Ontario College of Teachers), or an academic university degree outside the area of qualification.
- 4 years of work experience is required if you have successfully completed a one-year program from a Polytechnical Institute, or College of Applied Arts and Technology in the area of qualification.
- 3 years of work experience is required if you have a two-year diploma or equivalent from a Polytechnical Institute or College of Applied Arts and Technology in the area of qualification.
- 2 years of work experience is required if you have a three-year diploma or equivalent from a Polytechnical Institute or College of Applied Arts and Technology in the area of qualification.
- 2 years of work experience is required if you have an acceptable degree in the area of qualification.

Technological Studies Areas

"Technological education has moved away from a trade-specific focus to one of integration and the development of transferable skills." This is reflected in the consolidation of areas within technological studies into seven "broad-based technology" areas. The descriptions are derived from the "Curriculum Guideline: Broad-based Technological Education" prepared by the Ministry of Education and Training in 1995.

The seven areas are:

Communications Technology which includes the study of electronic, live, recorded and graphic communications.

Construction Technology which includes the study of residential, commercial, industrial, recreational and other built environments, including the systems required to maintain and service them.

Hospitality Services which includes the study of tourism and guiding, travel and accommodation, food preparation and serving, and other hospitality issues.

Manufacturing Technology which includes the study of product design, process and production planning, manufacturing processes, and quality control.

Personal Services which includes the study of health care, personal grooming, child care, and geriatric care.

Technological Design which includes the in-depth study of a variety of design processes that may be used in solving technological challenges in communications, manufacturing, electronics, transportation and architecture.

Transportation Technology which includes the study of land, air and marine transportation from the point of view of personal transportation, mass transit systems, and the transportation of freight and other objects.

Technical Proficiency Examination (TPE)

Proof of competence in your chosen Technological Studies area will be determined by a Technical Proficiency Examination (TPE). Candidates will be tested on the fundamental principles, operations, processes and skills of the Technological Studies area in which certification is sought.

However, candidates who hold one of the qualifications listed below may request that the TPE requirement be waived. The TPE Coordinator will provide further information during the first month of the program.

- a Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities Certificate of Qualification (C of Q) accompanied by the details of the examination showing at least 70% (B) standing in the Technological Studies area for which teaching certification is sought.
- a degree or a three-year diploma, supported by an official transcript, from a university, Polytechnical Institute or College of Applied Arts and Technology showing proof of concentrated study (a minimum of 5 full courses) in the Technological Studies area for which teaching certification is sought.

Applicants Submitting Documents from Other Countries

- Documentation in a language other than English or French must be accompanied by an official translation.
- Secondary School credentials from other countries must be considered to be at a level equivalent to the Ontario Secondary School Graduation Diploma. OISE/UT will make its own equivalency evaluation for admission purposes. However, applicants are advised that the Ontario College of Teachers is not obliged to accept our equivalency evaluation and will make its own evaluation for certification purposes.

PROGRAM OF STUDY

The Technological Studies program consists of 7 components (A-G below), for a total of 5.0 course weights. Candidates are required to register for the Internship and for the appropriate course(s) in each of the other 6 components. Candidates must successfully complete all 7 components of the program in order to be recommended for the Bachelor of Education degree or the Diploma in Technical Education and the Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification.

- A Curriculum and Instruction (2.0 course weights)
- B Teacher Education Seminar (1.0 course weight)
- C Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development (0.5 course weight)
- D School and Society (0.5 course weight)
- E Related Studies (0.5 course weight)
- F Practicum (0.5 course weight)
- G Internship (0.0 course weight)

NOTE: Course Weights/Hours

- one full course (1.0) = a minimum of 72 contact hours
- one half course (0.5) = a minimum of 36 contact hours
- one quarter course (0.25) = a minimum of 18 contact hours

A) Curriculum and Instruction

Two Technological Studies Curriculum and Instruction courses are required of all candidates:

ETS1010 Principles and Methods of Teaching
Technological Studies (1.0)
ETS1040 Curriculum Development for
Technological Studies (1.0)

B) Teacher Education Seminar

The Teacher Education Seminar (ETS6000) is required of all candidates.

C) Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development

The Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development course (ETS3506) is required of all candidates.

D) School and Society

The School and Society course (ETS3508) is required of all candidates.

E) Related Studies

The elective Related Studies courses allow candidates to pursue individual interests and deepen or broaden their knowledge and skills.

NOTE: The Related Studies course, Design and Problem-Solving Processes for Broad-Based Technology (ETS5260) is required of all Technological Studies candidates.

One additional course from the following list is required.

Classroom Management: Building on the Basics
EDU5211 (0.25)
Environmental Field Studies - Primary/Junior
EDU5214 (0.25)
Introductory Conflict Resolution for a Democratic Classroom EDU5218 (0.25)
Perspectives On Adult Education
EDU5222 (0.25)
Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition
EDU5224 (0.25)

F) Practicum

The Practicum (ETS4010) is required of all candidates.

All Practicum placements are made through the Practicum Office. Under no circumstances should candidates make their own arrangements with schools.

Locations of Practicum Assignments

Classroom Management: Building on the Basics EDU5211

(Course Weight 0.25)

Possibly the greatest challenge teachers face is the complex task of organizing and managing classrooms. Classroom management and organization refers to all of the things that an effective teacher does to organize students, space, time and materials so that instruction in content and student learning can take place. Research in this area attests to the fact that classroom management skills are of primary importance in determining teachers' success. In keeping with the Teaching Practice component of the Standards of Practice of the Teaching Profession, this course will help you learn how to establish a safe and supportive environment, how to establish and maintain standards for student behaviour, how to organize time and space to enrich the learning environment and how to use classroom management skills to enhance learning. This course will use as its base the David Keirseay and True Colors theory of classroom management and discipline and the works of Glasser, Dreikurs, Gordon and Ginott.

Curriculum Development for Technological Studies ETS1040

(Course Weight 1.0)

This course is an introduction to the theory and practice of curriculum planning in a technological context. The course will pay particular attention to definitions of technology and curriculum, and a comparison of models of technology education. The theoretical aspects of the course will be applied to the development of a course of study, unit plans and resource materials which are sensitive to a variety of student learning styles, teaching approaches and evaluation procedures.

Design and Problem-Solving Processes for Broad-Based Technology ETS5260

(Course Weight 0.25)

The emphasis of this course is on providing the candidate with a thorough introduction to design processes; that is, the particular form of practical problem-solving which lies at the heart of all technological activity. The philosophy and the theoretical principles which underlie design education will be examined. Using a variety of contexts as starting points, candidates will apply concepts and principles in the development of activities and materials appropriate to a range of learning outcomes in technological education.

NOTE: Open only to Technological Studies candidates.

Environmental Field Studies – Primary/Junior EDU5214

(Course Weight 0.25)

This course deals with the development, implementation and evaluation of field studies for integration into primary and junior programs. Topics include: nature study, the planning and administration of field trips in and around the community, schoolyard ecology, habitat restoration, the investigation of freshwater and terrestrial ecosystems, the planning and administration of extended field trips, and resource management simulations (e.g. Project Wild, Focus on Forests). Environmental ethics and the infusion model for environmental education will also be examined.

Internship

The Internship consists of field-based experience. It allows candidates to deepen and broaden their skills and knowledge in terms of the Standards of Practice for the teaching profession developed by the College of Teachers.

NOTE: Course number and course weight are not applicable to the Internship.

Introductory Conflict Resolution for a Democratic Classroom EDU5218 (Course Weight 0.25)

This short course introduces concepts and strategies for involving diverse students in practicing skills for participation in pluralist democracy, in particular the management conflict. Participants will describe, try out, and discuss a range of approaches to helping students to improve their capacities for communication, conflict resolution, problem solving, equitable participation in decision-making, and autonomous self-discipline. Equally important, readings and analytical discussions will help each participant to locate those strategies in relationship to their own long-range goals, values, and skills as developing teachers. Activities will be built around two central ideas: conflict (its value for learning and its management or resolution at the classroom level) and democracy (facilitating the development of diverse 'students' into effective 'citizens'). The course uses a workshop format, and is open to candidates who will teach at the primary, junior, intermediate, and secondary levels.

Perspectives on Adult Education EDU5222 (Course Weight 0.25)

A study of adult education programs offered by public, private and volunteer agencies. Emphasis will be on the role of the teacher in planning, implementation, and evaluation. Characteristics of adult learners, adult relationships and leadership, and training as a component in organizational development will be discussed.

Principles and Methods of Teaching Technological Studies ETS1010 (Course Weight 1.0)

This course is an introduction to pedagogical theory and practice appropriate to technological studies programs. Instruction and practice will be given in writing learning outcomes, planning learning activities, managing the classroom, and testing and evaluating the outcomes of instruction. Emphasis is on a high level of participation in course activities which include seminars, discussions, workshops, demonstrations and groups assignments. Out of this practice, students will be able to synthesize a personal philosophy of technological studies education.

Practicum ETS4010 (Course Weight 0.5)

The practicum consists of two main components: 1) orientation to schools, with a focus on school culture and school community; and 2) classroom practice related to the candidates specific program.

Teacher candidates are assigned, during fall and winter practicum sessions, to schools or other settings approved by the Ontario College of Teachers, for a minimum of fifty days of combined observation and practice related to these components. As well, candidates may be involved in additional field activities connected to their program through the year.

Prior Learning Assessment and Recognition (PLAR) EDU5224 (Course Weight 0.25)

This course examines the principles of PLAR and how learning that occurs outside of school is translated into school achievement. Candidates will explore the utilization of PLAR by means of applying these principles to their own learning.

Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development ETS3506 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course focuses on the psychological principles of learning and development in childhood and adolescence, with particular emphasis on their relevance and application to schooling. Its goal is to introduce students to key psychological concepts, such as intelligence and motivation, and their interrelations with the diverse developmental characteristics of the learner. Students will also be encouraged to consider the independent and interactive roles of the student, the family, the school, and society in the learning process.

School and Society ETS3508 (Course Weight 0.5)

This course will help teacher candidates develop a critical awareness of the intersections among schools, classrooms, communities, and society within the changing context of the learning environment. The course addresses the varieties of students who enter the classroom in terms of their diverse social origins, cultures, identities, and social status. The course helps new teachers understand the ways in which their professional work (inside and beyond the classroom) helps prepare these diverse students to be active participants in a changing society. It engages participants in an examination of the purposes of education, education policy, and of teachers' responsibility to work productively with school colleagues and other adults to achieve equitable access, experiences, and outcomes for all students.

Teacher Education Seminar ETS6000 (Course Weight 1.0)

This course focuses on the connections among the candidates' professional courses, the practicum, and their personal experiences. The course provides opportunities for candidates to synthesize their learning in these areas in order to develop: an understanding of the process of becoming a teacher; a personal identity as a teacher, and a foundation for continuing professional growth as an individual and as a member of the teaching community.

In the Technological Studies program the Teacher Education Seminar provides a context and reinforcement for studies undertaken in the professional courses and the practicum, including: principles of assessment and evaluation; effective learning environments and classroom management; special education; Standards of Practice for the teaching profession; and approaches both for promoting diversity and equity in school programs, and for addressing discrimination.

Institute of Child Study (ICS)

and education. Its program in elementary teacher education is regarded as a leader in the field. The program, leading to the M.A. in Child Study and Education, accommodates approximately 80 students. The I.C.S. Laboratory School, for children from 3 to 12 years, and its Infant Center serve as resources for candidates in the teacher education program, and are also used for research activities.

The Institute was founded in 1926, as St. George's School for Child Study - the first university laboratory preschool in Canada. In 1939 this School became the Institute of Child Study and the first of the University of Toronto's numerous multi-disciplinary research centers. At that time, research studies at the Institute were focused on the preschool years. In 1953 the Institute's move to its present quarters at 45 Walmer Road permitted expansion of the Laboratory School and of research and training activities to include children up to grade 6. Programs in infancy and family studies were also initiated about this time.

Although graduate study in Psychology had been a major element in the Institute's activities since its inception, the Institute's own one-year program leading to the Diploma in Child Study was first offered in 1944. In 1967 the program was extended to two years. In 1996/97 the program became the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education.

In its research and teaching activities, the Institute has maintained a realistic balance of interest in theoretical approaches and practical problems related to child development. The program is arranged to accommodate candidates with a variety of undergraduate backgrounds. The academic program for all candidates includes courses concerned with basic theory and research, as well as courses directed toward the application of knowledge in practice. In 1971 the Institute became a constituent of the Faculty of Education, bringing together, psychological and educational issues in the study of children. In July 1996, it became a center of the Department of Human Development and Applied Psychology of the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto.

The Institute of Child Study (ICS) is a center of professional training and research in childhood

NOTE: Candidates in the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education program are also subject to the rules and regulations of the School of Graduate Studies and should refer to the OISE/UT Bulletin and the School of Graduate Studies Calendar for further information.

The core assumption of this program is that successful teaching involves an understanding of how children's capacities, concerns, and behaviour change with age; how children's individual differences tend to reflect developmental changes; and how children's social and physical environments influence their development. Our aim is to acquaint students with educational and developmental theory and research that is relevant to educational settings, showing how this research can inform classroom practice. Students also learn how to objectively study children, including both practical assessment and formal methods of inquiry. These areas of knowledge must be combined with knowledge of effective teaching methods and teaching environments so that educational practices can build on children's current levels of development.

The program is offered in two streams: two-year and one-year.

Two-Year Program

The two-year M.A. offers a unique, research-based teacher education program. Eligible graduates are recommended to the Ontario College of Teachers for an Ontario Teachers Certificate of Qualification. This qualifies the holder to teach in the primary and junior divisions of Ontario Schools. Graduates are also recommended for Part 1 of the three-part qualification in Primary Education. Graduates will be eligible for Part 2 of the three-part qualification in Primary Education following one year's successful teaching experience as attested by the appropriate supervisory officer. Students will complete six-week, first-year placements in kindergarten/early childhood, grade 1-3, and grade 4-6 classrooms plus at least one other six-week placement during their first year of study. Students will complete an internship in an elementary classroom in their second year of study.

Two further areas of concentration may be elected:

•Special Education, Part 1

Students wishing to be eligible for Part 1 of the three-part qualification in Special Education will complete at least one six-week placement in a special education setting in their first year of study. In their second year of study, they will elect courses HDP2280H (Introduction to Special Education and Adaptive Instruction) and HDP1285H (Psychology and Education of Students with Learning Disabilities) or other approved special education course.

•Qualifying Research Paper

Students planning further graduate study in the foreseeable future are advised to consider a Qualifying Research Paper (QRP). They need to find a QRP supervisor (program staff are committed to supervising a total of at least ten QRPs a year), elect course HDP1209H (Research Methods and Thesis Preparation in Human Development and Applied Psychology) in their first year of study, and elect a research group or independent study course as part of their second year of study while working on their QRP.

It will not normally be possible to complete both the Special Education qualification Part 1 and a QRP within the context of 16 half-courses. Similarly, students without prior empirical research training will not be able to complete a QRP within the context of 16 half-courses.

Admission Requirements

Admission to the two-year M.A. program normally requires preparation equivalent to a University of Toronto four-year bachelor's degree with standing equivalent to a University of Toronto mid-B or better. In addition, applicants are expected to have experience working with groups of children, preferably in responsible positions. Selected candidates will be interviewed in most cases.

Applicants should include the following information in addition to the standard application requirements:

1. one or two professional references from places where the applicant has worked with children
2. a list of all experiences working with children, their duration, and whether they were on a paid or volunteer basis
3. the Statement of Intent including information about prior work with children and research interests regarding children that have led to and interest in this program

Because candidates are applying to a teacher education program they also need to submit the following items with their application:

1. a photocopy of a Canadian birth certificate, or, in the case of a person who was not born in Canada, documents showing the basis upon which the applicant is present in Canada including date and place of birth
2. a photocopy of a certificate of change of name where applicable
3. satisfactory evidence of freedom from tuberculosis (required by the Ontario College of Teachers)

Program Requirements

The two-year M.A. program is comprised of the equivalent of 16 half-courses, including practica and is normally undertaken on a full-time basis. The required courses are:

- HDP2200 Child Study: Observation, Evaluation and Reporting
- HDP2201 Childhood Education Seminar (full course)
- HDP2202 Childhood Education Seminar II: Advanced Teaching (full course)
- HDP2210 Introduction to Curriculum (full course)
- HDP2211 Theory and Curriculum I: Language and Literacy
- HDP2212 Theory and Curriculum II: Children's Epistemologies in Mathematics
- HDP2220 Teaching Practicum (full course)
- HDP2221 Advanced Teaching Practicum (full course)
- HDP2230 Designing Educational Programs.

The remaining three courses are electives. For descriptions of elective courses, see the OISE/UT Graduate Studies in Education Bulletin available from the OISE/UT Registrar's Office.

In addition, students must demonstrate a knowledge of the acts and regulations respecting education in Ontario. Registration in the second year is contingent upon successful completion of all first year work.

One-Year Program

This program is offered only to students who hold a two-year Diploma in Child Study with a concentration in Childhood Education or Early Childhood Education from the University of Toronto. The one-year M.A. program is intended to further develop an academic-inquiry oriented approach to children and learning. The program will also provide good preparation for students who may be interested in pursuing further graduate study.

Admission Requirements

In addition to the admission requirements stated previously for the two-year program, applicants to the one-year M.A. program must also hold a two-year Diploma in Child Study with a concentration in Childhood Education or Early Childhood Education from the University of Toronto.

Program Requirements

The one-year M.A. program is comprised of eight half-courses and may be undertaken on a full- or part-time basis. The required courses are:

- HDP2211 Theory and Curriculum I: Language and Literacy
- HDP2212 Theory and Curriculum II: Children's Epistemologies in Mathematics

The remaining courses are electives. For descriptions of elective courses, see the OISE/UT Graduate Studies in Education Bulletin.

For students who may be interested in further graduate study, it is strongly recommended that they include as part of their elective courses a course in research design and measurement and a course in statistics, plus complete a Qualifying Research Paper (QRP) that includes empirical field work.

NOTE: The following required courses are normally open only to candidates in the M.A. in Child Study and Education program.

HDP2200H Child Study: Observation, Evaluation and Reporting

A course designed for students to learn the skills and knowledge fundamental to a developmentally oriented systematic study of children. This is done through observing, recording, interpreting, and reporting in a professional manner the behaviour and development of children in diverse practice and research settings. A range of methods from direct observation to standardized testing will be surveyed. The role of the practitioner as critical inquirer will be emphasized.

HDP2201Y Childhood Education Seminar

A seminar examining the teaching-learning interaction between adults and children in preschool, primary, and junior educational settings. Emphasis is on the integration of teaching practice with principles of child development and learning theory. This seminar draws on the students' experiences from practicum placements. This course will also include a focus on childcare arrangements and related issues for children in elementary schools, and a review of the Day Nurseries Act.

HDP2202Y Childhood Education Seminar II: Advanced Teaching

This seminar will provide for discussion of topics and issues that emerge during the students' internship (HDP2221Y Advanced Teaching Practicum). This course will also include a review of the Education Act and regulations, the College of Teachers and regulations, and one or more sessions on the history of the child care movement, and on current policy issues on child care.

HDP2210Y Introduction to Curriculum

A study of education techniques, and the role of the teacher in designing, evaluating, and implementing curricula for children aged three to twelve. Basic areas of the elementary curriculum will be introduced, including arts (drama, music, physical education, and visual arts), communications, mathematics, and science.

HDP2211H Theory and Curriculum I: Language and Literacy

A detailed study of the design, implementation, and evaluation of the elementary curriculum in the area of communications (speaking, listening, reading, writing). The practical problems of curriculum design are informed by theoretical considerations of children's linguistic development from infancy onwards, and of the differences between oral and written language.

HDP2212H Theory and Curriculum II: Children's Epistemologies in Mathematics

A detailed study of the design, implementation, and evaluation of the elementary curriculum in the area of mathematics. The practical issues are informed by theoretical considerations of children's cognitive development from infancy onwards, particularly the ways in which implicit knowledge becomes explicit, and naive theories become formalized.

HDP2220Y Teaching Practicum (Pass/Fail)

Students are placed in classrooms in the Institute's Laboratory School, in public and separate schools, and in other settings. Students are under the joint supervision of an associate teacher on site and an academic staff member at the Institute of Child Study. There are two practicum sessions, each providing 144 hours of practicum experience in 2, six-week, half-day blocks.

HDP2221Y Advanced Teaching Practicum

(Pass/Fail)

Second year Child Study and Education students carry out one internship placement lasting 16 weeks. Internships may be in classes from preschool through grade six. Through these internships students consolidate skills under the supervision of a mentor teacher on site and a staff member from the Institute of Child Study. The internship provides a total of 320 practicum hours.

HDP2230H Designing Educational Programs

An educational program consists of a sequence of learning activities carried out over an extended period of time to accomplish a number of long-term learning goals. The main goal of this course is to help students learn how to plan educational programs that can accommodate a variety of children and achieve a variety of learning goals.

MASTER OF TEACHING (M.T.) IN HUMAN DEVELOPMENT AND CURRICULUM

Applied Psychology (HDAP) offer a two-year Master of Teaching (M.T.) degree in Human Development and Curriculum. Upon successful completion of this program, students will be awarded a Master of Teaching degree and a recommendation to the Ontario College of Teachers for an Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification which qualifies them to teach in either the primary and junior divisions or the junior and intermediate divisions of Ontario schools. The cooperating departments contribute courses, provide facilities and provide supervision for graduate research. Students are admitted to the program through either of the two departments.

The Human Development and Curriculum program offers students a unique educational opportunity for teacher qualification with advanced theoretical knowledge and research skills. The program provides students with a strong conceptual grounding in human development, cognitive psychology, educational technology, curriculum, teaching, and learning. The high level of academic rigor in conjunction with increased practicum opportunities serves to enhance and extend the theoretical and practical experiences of students preparing to teach.

Program objectives are achieved through a combination of formal coursework, teaching and research seminars, internship and practica, along with independent and collaborative research and major research papers (MRP).

The program heads for the M.T. program are:
D. McDougall (CTL), (416) 923-6641 ext. 2603
E. Woodruff (HDAP), (416) 923-6641 ext. 2422

The faculty affiliated with the program are M. Ferrari, S. Peterson, (core faculty), and M.L. Arnold, T. Goldstein, A. Jordan, B. Kelly, C. Rolheiser, M. Scardamalia, and E. Smyth (associated faculty).

Admission Requirements

Applicants are admitted under the general regulations of the School of Graduate Studies, University of Toronto. Applicants normally must have the equivalent of a University of Toronto four-year bachelor's degree with standing

The Departments of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning, (CTL) and Human Development and equivalent to a University of Toronto mid-B or better in the final year. In their Statement of Intent, applicants should describe three significant teaching and/or teaching-related experiences that they have had, especially with groups of children. With reference to these experiences, applicants should identify insights gained about teaching and learning, and explain how, based on these insights, they might contribute to the education of students in today's schools. Final selection will be made based on an interview by a panel of faculty, teachers and students. Given the limited number of students in this program, not all eligible applicants can be admitted.

Applicants apply for admission to this program through either the Department of Curriculum, Teaching and Learning or the Department of Human Development and Applied Psychology. Admission and degree requirements for the program are the same for both departments. Because applicants are applying to a teacher education program they also need to submit the following items with their application:

- a) a photocopy of a Canadian birth certificate, or in the case of a person who was not born in Canada, documents showing the basis upon which the applicant is present in Canada including date and place of birth
- b) a photocopy of a certificate of change of name where applicable
- c) satisfactory evidence of freedom from tuberculosis (required by the Ontario College of Teachers)

Specialization

Applicants must select one of the following specializations:

- Primary/Junior (junior kindergarten to grade 6)
- Junior/Intermediate (grades 4 to 10)

English (First Language)

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in English

Geography

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Geography

History

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in History

Mathematics

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Mathematics

Science-General

Prerequisites: Three full university courses in Science

Visual Arts

Prerequisites: Two full university courses in Visual Arts or post-secondary equivalent.

Candidates must have studio-oriented experience.

Program Requirements

The two-year M.T. degree is composed of the equivalent of 16 half-courses (14 core and two electives), including practica, and is undertaken on a full-time basis. Normally, advanced standing is not granted in this program. In addition to the coursework (including practica), all candidates must successfully complete a comprehensive examination at the end of the program in order to graduate and receive the M.T. degree and a recommendation to the Ontario College of Teachers for an Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification. Registration in the second year is contingent upon successful completion of all first-year work.

NOTE: These courses or sections of these courses are normally open only to students in the M.T. in Human Development and Curriculum program.

CTL1011H Anti-Discriminatory Education in School Settings

In this course we will identify spaces in which we find discrimination in education - for example, within interactions between teachers and students; administrators and students; students and students; students and the curriculum; teachers and the curriculum; administrators and teachers; teachers and parents; parents and administrators - and we will discuss how we can use these spaces or locate new ones to do anti-discriminatory educational work in school settings. Emphasis in the course will be placed on integrating theory and practice. We will attempt to link our discussions of practice to theory and our discussions of theory to practice.

CTL1019H Authentic Assessment

In this course candidates will formulate a personal policy on student assessment, develop authentic assessment tools appropriate to their teaching assignments, and assess the quality of authentic assessment strategies. Particular attention will be given to performance assessments, portfolios, self-evaluation, cooperative assessment, student beliefs and attitudes toward assessment, measurement of affective outcomes and professional standards for evaluating student assessment practices.

CTL1797H Practicum in Curriculum: Master's Level

Supervised experience in an area of fieldwork, under the direction of faculty and field personnel. Inquire at the department office at least two months before the beginning of term.

CTL7000Y Curriculum and Teaching

An introduction to education techniques, and the role of the teacher in implementing, evaluating and designing curricula for students in grades K to 10. Basic areas of the elementary curriculum will be introduced, including arts (drama, music, physical education and visual arts), communications, mathematics and science. Additionally, the course explores classroom management and illustrates methods for curriculum planning and development including practical assessment strategies.

Staff

CTL7001H Collaboration, Curriculum, Community and Teaching

This course will enable students to analyze the interrelated conditions that shape the classroom context specifically and educational change generally. The impact of community and collaboration upon the curriculum and role of the teacher are studied in detail. Topics include cooperative learning, parental participation, and the influence of collegial relationships with students, parents, community, government and social business agencies upon the classroom and the school.

CTL7003H Conceptual Basis for Methods of Teaching in Primary/Junior or Junior/Intermediate Classrooms

This course examines the conceptual basis underlying teaching methods, problems, and issues related to curricula in the primary and junior divisions (junior kindergarten to grade 6) or junior and intermediate divisions (grades 4 - 10). Instruction is given in general methods and specific approaches to teaching.

Junior/Intermediate students will specialize in one subject area. (See the Specialization section on page 58 for a list of the teaching subjects offered.) Opportunities to observe and participate in the activities of the elementary school classroom will be provided to consolidate conceptual understanding and develop skills in the applied delivery of curriculum.

Prerequisites: Junior/Intermediate students need a minimum of two full university courses in their subject specialization plus any other prerequisites as may be required by the Ontario College of Teachers.

HDP7002H Ethical, Legal and Professional Issues in Education

This course provides students with an overview of legal, ethical and professional issues as they relate to the educational practitioner. Models of decision-making designed to assist practitioners with ethical concerns are reviewed and practiced with a variety of case examples. Issues are also examined in relation to professional conduct and responsibilities. This course will address school law in Ontario.

HDP1201H Child and Adolescent Development

This course addresses factors involved in child development (preschool period, early school years, intermediate years, adolescence) and the problems of each period. As well, preventative and remedial phases of mental health are examined.

HDP2280H Introduction to Special Education and Adaptive Instruction

A critical analysis of current issues related to philosophy, practice, administration, integration and inclusion, and instructional and classroom adaptations. This course is intended primarily for Child Study and Education students, those in the Interdepartmental program in Adaptive Instruction and Special Education, M.Ed. students and School and Child-Clinical students in HDAP. Others must seek the permission of the instructor to register. This course is not appropriate for students who already have a background in special education.

HDP2288H Reflective Teaching and Analysis of Instruction

This course is designed to develop students' awareness of, reflection about, and evaluation of their own professional knowledge and skills in relation to classroom-based assessment and remediation of generic learning skill deficits in diverse student populations. Discussion of instructional and assessment methodologies will be followed by experience applying these methodologies to various content areas in the curriculum.

HDP7002H Ethical, Legal and Professional Issues in Education

This course provides students with an overview of legal, ethical and professional issues as they relate to the educational practitioner. Models of decision-making designed to assist practitioners with ethical concerns are reviewed and practiced with a variety of case examples. Issues are also examined in relation to professional conduct and responsibilities. This course will address school law in Ontario.

HDP7004H Practicum in Schools

This course provides supervised experience in an area of fieldwork, under the direction of faculty and field personnel. Students are placed in partnership schools in public and separate school systems and in other settings. Students are under the joint supervision of a field teacher on site and an academic staff member at OISE/UT. The practicum provides a minimum of 30 days of field experience.

HDP7005Y Practicum Internship

Students are placed in partnership schools in public and separate school systems and in other settings. Students are under the joint supervision of field teachers on site and an academic staff member at OISE/UT. The practicum provides a minimum of 80 days of field experience as junior staff members within school settings.

Tuition Fees

Administrative User Fees

Library Fees and Fines

The University reserves the right to alter fees and other charges described in the Calendar. Please refer to the Fees Schedule for full details on Tuition Fees and Fees Refunds.

1. The minimum first payment for the initial teacher education program, and outstanding payments for any previous session at the University of Toronto, must be made prior to registration in September or you may not be allowed to register. Students who have applied for OSAP assistance prior to May 31, 2000, and cannot pay the required fees before receiving their OSAP funds, may obtain a temporary deferment of fees.
2. The total fee for the session is assessed to your account at registration. If you have not paid the total amount of fees owing, service charges will be assessed as follows: all outstanding balances, regardless of source of payment, or when the course or program is held, are subject to a service charge of 1.5% per month compounded, first assessed on October 15th and on the 15th of each month thereafter (regardless of the day of the week on which the 15th falls) until paid in full.
3. Students who withdraw before the end of a course will be charged fees from the beginning of the school year to the effective date of withdrawal. Notification of withdrawal must be made in writing to the Registrar.
4. International Students whose visa status in Canada changes during the session may be eligible for a fee adjustment under one of the approved provisions. To receive an adjustment you must report your status change and present supporting documents prior to October 31, in the first term and January 31 in the second term.

Financial Assistance and Awards

NOTE: Master of Arts in Child Study and Education and Master of Teaching in Human Development and Curriculum candidates should also refer to the OISE/UT Graduate Studies Bulletin

Financial Assistance

Policy on Student Financial Support

The University of Toronto's Policy on Student Financial Support states, as a fundamental principle that "No student admitted to a program at the University should be unable to enter or complete the program due to a lack of financial means." This guarantee, which is implemented through the UTAPS program (see below) is designed to ensure that all students have access to the resources necessary to meet their needs as assessed by a common mechanism. This mechanism is based on the Ontario Student Assistance Plan (OSAP). The University of Toronto is unique among Canadian universities in providing this assurance of financial support.

Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP)

The Ontario Student Assistance Program (OSAP) provides needs-based financial assistance to Ontario residents who are Canadian citizens or permanent residents. Students in course loads of sixty per cent or greater are considered for both federal and provincial interest-free student loans to assist with educational and living expenses. The Ontario Student Opportunity Grant provides partial forgiveness of loans on an annual basis for students who have incurred large debt loads.

Application forms and information concerning the eligibility and assessment criteria may be obtained from:

OR

OSAP web site: <http://osap.gov.on.ca> .

It is strongly recommended that students apply for OSAP assistance prior to May 31. Students from other Canadian provinces should apply through their provincial financial aid authority. Admissions and Awards can provide addresses and in many cases, application forms.

Ontario Bursary for Students with Disabilities

Non-repayable assistance of up to $7,000 is available for OSAP recipients who have special education expenses as a result of a disability. Information and applications are available from Admissions and Awards. Detailed information on this program is also available on the OSAP website.

UTAPS (University of Toronto Advance Planning for Students)

Students are first expected to rely on OSAP assistance up to the level of the maximum OSAP loan. UTAPS is a University of Toronto program of financial support to students whose needs have not been fully met after receiving maximum government aid from OSAP. The University will provide assistance in the form of a non-repayable grant that covers the difference between OSAP-assessed need and the maximum allowable loan provided to the student. You are automatically considered for UTAPS if you apply for OSAP.

University of Toronto Work-Study Plan

This program is funded by the University and the Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities and provides on-campus part-time employment to students with financial need. Students are expected to have applied to OSAP but those with special circumstances may also be considered providing financial need can be demonstrated. Eligibility information and applications are available from Admissions and Awards.

OISE/UT Bursary

The OISE/UT Awards Committee offers non-repayable bursaries to students registered in the Bachelor of Education/Technological Studies program who demonstrate financial need. The Committee meets monthly throughout the year and students may apply for, and receive, more than one bursary during the year. Applications are available from the OISE/UT Student Services Office, Rm. 5-103. The bursary is intended to supplement the student's own resources, including government assistance. Students are expected first to apply for, and qualify for, an OSAP loan, although special circumstances are sometimes considered. If you are seeking financial counselling, or wish to discuss your personal circumstances in confidence, please make an appointment to see a counsellor in the OISE/UT Student Services Office.

Special Bursaries

Christopher Parker Memorial Fund

This fund was established to provide a one-time grant to support full-time OISE/UT students with disabilities, to enable them to continue their studies when financial emergencies occur. Under the terms of the fund, preference is given, but not limited, to students with hearing impairments.

Percy H. Taçon Memorial Bursary

This bursary was established by Mrs. P. H. Taçon as a memorial to Percy H. Taçon, Professor Emeritus, noted Ontario Artist, who was Professor of Visual Arts at the Faculty of Education and the University of Toronto Schools from 1945 to 1970.

The bursary, in the amount of $500, will be awarded annually to a student registered in the Visual Arts option of the B.Ed./O.T.C. of Q. Program. Recipients will be selected on the basis of financial need and demonstrated ability to make a significant contribution to the field of art education. Candidates must apply to the OISE/UT Awards Committee by November 1.

Entrance Awards

M. Penelope Carter Award

This award was established by a bequest from the late Miriam Penelope Carter. One award, to the value of the annual income of the endowment, will be granted by the OISE/UT Awards Committee to a person admitted to the initial teacher education program in the Intermediate/Senior divisions who will enrol in English. The recipient must have graduated from the University of Toronto with high academic standing in a Specialist or Major Program in English. In addition, the demonstrated financial need of the applicant, especially as related to family responsibilities, will be considered. The value of this award is expected to be approximately $5,000.

The recipient will be selected by the OISE/UT Awards Committee by August 1 from persons admitted to the following academic year to the Intermediate/Senior Divisions in the teacher education program and who apply for this award. The application deadline is July 1.

Prof. Arthur Loudon Memorial Entrance Scholarship in Science

Mrs. Francis Drover Loudon has endowed an award in honour of her husband, Prof. Arthur H. Loudon, who taught Science Education at the Faculty of Education, University of Toronto, from 1944 to 1971 and was Chair of the Science Department in the Faculty from 1955 to 1971.

One or more awards to the value of the annual income will be made by the OISE/UT Awards Committee to persons admitted to the Intermediate/Senior Divisions in the teacher education program who will enrol in Science and have best demonstrated high academic achievement in biology or chemistry or physics, and a desire to teach Science. The maximum value of each award is not more than $5,000.

The recipient will be selected by the OISE/UT Awards Committee by August 1 from persons admitted for the following academic year to the Intermediate/Senior Divisions of the teacher education program who have selected Science as a teaching subject and who apply for the award. The application deadline is July 1.

Dr. R. L. Peterson Memorial Entrance Award in Science and Environmental Science

Mrs. Elizabeth Peterson, Chair of the Board of Directors, Boreal Laboratories Ltd., has endowed an award in OISE/UT in honour of Dr. R. L. Peterson, 1920-1989. Dr. Peterson was a professor in the Department of Zoology at the University of Toronto, Curator of the Department of Mammalogy at the Royal Ontario Museum, a Director and Chairman of the Toronto Zoological Society and founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors of Boreal Laboratories.

One or more awards to the value of the annual income will be made by the OISE/UT Awards Committee to the person admitted to the Intermediate/Senior divisions in the initial teacher education program who will enrol in Environmental Science and Science and who best demonstrates financial need, involvement in community work and activities providing preparation for a career in teaching and who shows a desire to teach and has good academic standing. The maximum value of each award is $1000.

The recipient will be selected by the OISE/UT Awards Committee by August 1, from persons admitted for the following academic year to the Intermediate/Senior divisions of the teacher education program who have selected Science and Environmental Science as their teaching subjects and who apply for the award. The application deadline is July 1.

Bertha and Howard Robertson Entrance Scholarship in Primary/Junior Education

This award was established by the family of Bertha Robertson on the occasion of her 88th birthday, December 31, 1991. Mr. and Mrs. Robertson both graduated from the University of Toronto.

One or more awards to the value of the annual income of the endowment (normally $200 - $250) will be granted by the OISE/UT Awards Committee to a person or persons admitted to the initial teacher education program in the Primary/Junior divisions who has best demonstrated academic achievement and a strong desire to teach children in the Primary/Junior grades.

The recipient will be selected by the OISE/UT Awards Committee by August 1 from persons admitted for the following academic year to the Primary/Junior divisions of the teacher education program and who apply for the award. The application deadline is July 1.

University of Toronto Vari Scholarship

This award was established by the Honourable George W. Vari and Helen Vari.

One or more awards of not more than $10,000 will be made to persons admitted to the Intermediate/Senior divisions of the Bachelor of Education program. Applicants for the Vari Scholarship are expected to have an 'A' academic average on a four year degree and an outstanding Applicant Profile. Selection is also based on a letter of reference from a professor, performance on the GRE General Test, and performance on a competitive essay. To be eligible for the Vari Scholarship, applicants must have resided in Ontario for twelve months prior to the beginning of the term of study and demonstrate financial need.

Applications for the Vari Scholarship are available from the OISE/UT Registrar's Office, Initial Teacher Education Admissions Unit, during the application period for the Bachelor of Education program and must be submitted by the application deadline for the Bachelor of Education program.

(Approximate value: $750 - $850)

Institute of Child Study Awards

James Fair Bursary

This bursary was established by the Institute of Child Study in memory of Dr. Jim Fair who was associated with the Institute from 1970 to 1989.

Two bursaries of $500 each will be awarded to students in the Institute who have demonstrated financial need and who perform a service benefiting children in the Institute Laboratory School. The application deadline is September 30.

Margaret Kidd Award

The fund is designed to provide small grants (normally less than $100) to assist students at the Institute of Child Study in attending conferences that will enrich their professional education and their potential for participation and innovation in the care and education of young children. The fund was established to recognize Margaret Kidd's lifetime of professional achievement in this area.

Applications for grants are accepted in one Fall and one Spring competition. The competition is administered by the I.C.S. Leighton-McCarthy Committee, which acts as the Institute's scholarship and awards committee. Awards are based on the student's record, the relevance of the proposed conference to the education and care of young children, and plans to 'report back' on the conference to the I.C.S. community.

Preference is given to students in the second year of the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education program. Interested students should submit a one page proposal by October 15 or February 15 depending on the term in which they plan to attend a conference. The proposal should be given to the Chair of the Leighton-McCarthy Committee.

Leighton McCarthy Memorial Scholarship

Established in 1977 by the Hope Foundation in memory of Mr. Leighton McCarthy, a former governor of the University of Toronto, who gave his residence at 45 Walmer Road to the University. This residence is now the home of the Institute of Child Study. $500 is awarded annually to a second-year student in the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education program. Selection is made by the Awards Committee of the Institute of Child Study on the basis of scholastic excellence and contribution to the life of the Institute. Financial need may also be considered.

Policies and Regulations

English Language Proficiency Policy

NOTE: This policy relates to the Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education/Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification Program only. Master of Arts in Child Study and Education and Master of Teaching in Human Development and Curriculum candidates see also the OISE/UT Graduate Studies Bulletin.

English is the language of instruction for all initial teacher education courses at OISE/UT, with the exception of some Modern Language Education courses. Consequently, to be successful in these courses and in the Practicum and the Internship, candidates must demonstrate a high degree of proficiency in both oral and written English.

As well, successful candidates receive certification to teach in schools where English is the language of instruction, and where the primary obligation of the elementary and secondary school teacher is to meet the needs of the learner. To do this effectively the teacher must be able to communicate effectively in English, the students' language of instruction. OISE/UT is committed to producing graduates who possess strong English language skills to meet these needs, and who will also be competent and effective role models in the use of oral and written English.

Thus, all applicants to the Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education/Ontario Teachers' Certificate of Qualification Program, as well as Ontario College of Teachers' Special Student applicants to the Continuing Education Program are required to give evidence of their oral and written proficiency in English.

A. Acceptable Levels of Proficiency in English

•For Applicants To The Diploma In Technical Education Program

Policies and Regulations

- (b) they have studied full-time for at least four years (or equivalent) in an English language school system located in a country where the first language is English

OR

- (c) they have achieved the required level of proficiency on one of the tests in English language as outlined in section B (i-iv) which follows.

•For Applicants To The Bachelor of Education Degree Program

All students applying for admission to the Bachelor of Education/Ontario Teacher's Certificate of Qualification Program must satisfy one of the following criteria:

- (a) their mother tongue or first language is English

OR

- (b) they have studied full-time for at least three years (or equivalent) in a university where the language of instruction and examination was English and which was located in a country where the first language is English

OR

- (c) they have achieved the required level of proficiency on one of the tests in English language as outlined in section B (i-iv) which follows.

•For Ontario College of Teachers Special Students Applying To The Continuing Education Program

All teachers seeking Ontario Certification who have been directed by the Ontario College of Teachers to take professional courses at a faculty of education, and who apply for admission to the Continuing Education Program to complete such requirements must satisfy one of the following criteria:

- (a) their mother tongue or first language is English

OR

- (b) they have studied full-time for at least three years (or equivalent) in a university where the language of instruction and examination was English and which was located in a country where the first language is English

OR

- (c) they have achieved the required level of proficiency on one of the tests in English language as outlined in section B (i-iv) which follows.

B. Acceptable Tests and Required Scores

NOTE: All tests must have been taken within the 3 years prior to the date of application to the OISE/UT Teacher Education programs.

- i) An official statement of results of TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) for either the new computer based test or the previous paper-based test. These two tests, although equivalent, use different grading scales.

Applicants who take the computer based test must submit an official statement of results showing a minimum score of 250, and also have a minimum Essay Rating Score of 6.0, as well as the TSE (Test of Spoken English), with a minimum score of 55.

Applicants who have taken the paper based test must submit an official statement of results showing a minimum score of 600, and the TWE (Test of Written English), showing a minimum score of 6.0, as well as the TSE (Test of Spoken English), showing a minimum score of 55.

OR

Grading Practices - Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education Programs

NOTE: Grading Practices for the following programs are printed in the calendars specific to each of those programs and are also available from the Registrar's Office:

- Graduate Studies in Education
- Continuing Education Program for Teachers

A. Evaluation Procedures - Courses

1. During the first week of each course, instructors will inform the class, orally and in writing, of their evaluation procedures and will provide:
  - i a list of all assignments, with due dates;
  - ii the weighting factor or percentage allotment for each course requirement;
  - iii a statement on the procedure used to determine final grades;
  - iv a description of the format and nature of the final examination (where applicable).

2. After making known the evaluation procedures, the instructor may not change them or their relative weights without the consent of at least a simple majority of the students enrolled in the course. Any change shall be reported to the Dean (or designate).
3. Commentary, appropriate in the instructor's judgment, on assessed term work will be made available to students with time for its discussion.
4. Student performance in a course shall be assessed on more than one occasion. No one essay, test, examination, etc. should have a value of more than 80% of the grade.
5. For each course at least one piece of term work which is a part of the evaluation of a student's performance, whether essay, lab report, review, etc., shall be returned to the student prior to the last date for withdrawal from the course without academic penalty.
6. Grades, as an expression of the instructor's best judgment of each student's overall performance in a course, will not be determined by any system of quotas.
7. All final course grades submitted by instructors will be reviewed by a Dean's Review Committee, which may seek clarification of apparent anomalies and, when necessary, may require that the grades as submitted be reconsidered. OISE/UT has the final responsibility for assigning the official course grade.

B. Evaluation Procedures – Practicum

The evaluation of student performance in the Practicum will include the following:

1. A formal statement describing the evaluation process, including the criteria to be used in assessing the performance of students and the appeal mechanisms available. This statement will be available to all students before the beginning of the first Practicum session.
2. A formative (interim) performance evaluation with written documentation for each Practicum session with feedback to the student.

3. Written documentation of the summative (final) evaluation of the Practicum session.

C. Evaluation Procedures – Internship

The evaluation of student performance in the Internship will include the following:

1. A formal statement describing the criteria to be used in determining if the requirements of the Internship have been completed successfully, and the appeal mechanisms available. This statement will be available to all students before the beginning of the Internship.
2. Written documentation of the successful completion of the Internship.

D. Conditions for Final Standing

1. Students will be evaluated on all seven components of the program: Curriculum and Instruction, Teacher Education Seminar, Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development, School and Society, Related Studies, the Practicum, and the Internship.
  - i. Grades in the Curriculum and Instruction subjects, Teacher Education Seminar, Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development, School and Society, and Related Studies, will be reported in the Refined Letter Grade Scale of A+, A, A-, B+, B, B-, C+, C, C-, D+, D, D-, F.
  - ii. Grades in the Practicum will be reported on the summative evaluation form as Pass or Fail. On the student's grade report and transcript, however, a final Pass grade will be recorded as a Credit (CR) and a final Fail grade will be recorded as a No Credit (NCR).
  - iii. Completion of the Internship requirement will be reported as "Successfully Completed" or "Unsuccessful" on the grade report and transcript.
3. The relationship among the letter grade scale, the grade meanings, the scale of numerical marks and the grade point value for all components of the program, excluding the Internship, is as follows:

Policies and Regulations

i Grade Scale for Courses

Letter Grade	Grade Meaning	Scale of Numerical Marks	Grade Point Value
A+		90 - 100%	4.0
A	Excellent	85 - 89%	4.0
A-		80 - 84%	3.7
B+		77 - 79%	3.3
B	Good	73 - 76%	3.0
B-		70 - 72%	2.7
C+		67 - 69%	2.3
C	Adequate	63 - 66%	2.0
C-		60 - 62%	1.7
D+		57 - 59%	1.3
D	Marginal	53 - 56%	1.0
D-		50 - 52%	0.7
F	Inadequate	0 - 49%	0.0

ii Grade Scale for the Practicum

Letter Grade	Grade Meaning
CR (Credit)	Pass
NCR (No Credit)	Fail

iii Internship

Does not have a grade scale

4. A grade assigned in a course is not an assessment of standing within the program. To be recommended for the Bachelor of Education degree or the Diploma in Technical Education and the Certificate of Qualification (Ontario College of Teachers), a student must attain:

- i a minimum of a D- grade in each course in the following components of the program:
- Curriculum and Instruction
  - Teacher Education Seminar
  - Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development
  - School and Society
  - Related Studies
- ii a minimum of an overall C+ average (2.3 GPA) in five components:
- Curriculum and Instruction
  - Teacher Education Seminar
  - Psychological Foundations of Learning and Development
  - School and Society
  - Related Studies

The overall average will take into account course weights.

- iii a Credit (CR) in the Practicum.*

- iv successful completion of the Internship.**

* A student must receive a Pass in each scheduled Practicum session (includes all summative evaluations). A student who receives a Fail in one Practicum session may be given the opportunity of earning a Pass in an additional Practicum session prior to the Internship, subject to review and approval by the Practicum Office. This opportunity will be given only once. A student who receives a Fail in more than one session of the Practicum will receive a final grade of NCR (No Credit) for the Practicum component of the program and will not be recommended for the Bachelor of Education degree or the Diploma in Technical Education nor for the Certificate of Qualification (Ontario College of Teachers).

** A student who does not successfully complete the Internship may be given another opportunity to complete this program requirement within the next academic year subject to review and approval by the Practicum Office.

E. Supplemental Privileges

1. Students not satisfying the Conditions for Final Standing may be granted supplemental privileges by the Dean's Review Committee.
2. Supplemental privileges granted in E.3 and E.4 below are limited to a combined total of two courses irrespective of the credit value of the course.
3. A student may be granted supplemental privileges in a course in which an F has been received. There are no supplemental privileges for a final grade of NCR in the Practicum component of the program nor for an unsuccessful Internship.
4. A student who receives a final grade of C, C-, D+, D or D- in a course may be granted supplemental privileges in that course if the student's overall average in the program is less than a C+ (2.3 GPA).

Policies and Regulations

5. A supplemental privilege may take the form of an examination or another method of satisfying the requirements of the course or program as determined by the Dean's Review Committee.
6. The grade achieved on any supplemental work or examination will be incorporated in the evaluation procedure established by the instructor for the course concerned, and will be used to determine the student's final grade in that course. This final grade will be applied to the criteria outlined for recommendation for the Bachelor of Education degree or the Diploma in Technical Education and the Certificate of Qualification (Ontario College of Teachers).
7. No student will be permitted to take more than twice any final examination, or part thereof, for any degree, diploma or certificate listed in the Calendar, except by permission of the Appeals Committee of the Council of the Faculty.

F. Student Access to Examination Papers

1. Copies of final examination papers for the preceding academic year are available in the OISE/UT Education Commons/Library. These are available for review by students upon request. In some cases instructors may be granted an exemption from filing an examination paper. Exemptions may be granted by the Dean (or designate). In those cases, an exemption notice will be filed in place of the copy of the examination.
2. A student has the right to petition for the re-reading and re-checking of marks on a final examination. A written petition must be submitted to the Registrar within two weeks of receiving the grade or decision. A student also has the right to review his or her examination, with a representative of the Elementary or Secondary Program setting the examination. A fee covering administrative costs and copying costs (where applicable) will be levied and must be paid prior to the review.

G. Withdrawals

A student may withdraw from the Bachelor of Education degree or Diploma in Technical Education program without academic penalty on or before March 31. If a completed "Withdrawal from the University" form is submitted to the Registrar before the official deadline, the designator WDR (withdrawn without academic penalty) will be entered on the student's academic record. A student who withdraws without notifying the Registrar, in writing, will be assigned a grade of F or NCR, as appropriate, in all courses. A student who wishes to withdraw after the official deadline must petition the Registrar for permission to do so without academic penalty.

H. Conflict of Interest

Where the instructor or a student has a conflict of interest, or is in a situation where a fair and objective assessment may not be possible, this should be disclosed to the Dean (or designate), who shall take steps to ensure fairness and objectivity.

I. Procedures in the Event of Disruptions

1. Principles

The following principles shall apply in the event of disruption of the academic program:

- i The academic integrity of academic programs must be honoured; and
- ii Students must be treated in a fair manner, recognizing their freedom of choice to attend university classes or not without penalty.

2. Procedures

- i The Vice-President and Provost, or the Academic Board, shall declare when a disruption of the academic program has occurred. The Provost shall take steps to inform the University community at large of the changes to be implemented and will report to the Committee on Academic Policy and Programs regarding the implementation of the procedures and changes to the status of the academic programs.

- ii Individual instructors responsible for courses that are disrupted shall determine, as the disruption proceeds, whether any changes to classroom procedures are needed to complete the course.
- iii Changes to the classroom procedures should, where possible, first be discussed with students prior to the class in which a vote of the students present on the proposed changes is to be taken. Changes agreed upon by consensus should be forwarded to the Dean (or designate) with a report on the attendance at the class where the vote was taken.
- iv Where consensus on changes has not been arrived at, or where a vote is not feasible, the instructor, after the class discussion, will provide the Dean (or designate) with his or her recommendation, along with the results of any classroom votes. The Dean (or designate) shall then make a decision.
- v Where classes are not able to convene, the instructor, with the prior approval of Dean (or designate), shall make changes deemed necessary to the classroom procedures. In the absence of the instructor, the Elementary or Secondary Program Coordinator shall consult with the Dean (or designate). Any changes made will be submitted to the Provost for approval. Where courses are to be cancelled, approval of the Council of the Faculty is required. If the Council of the Faculty cannot meet, approval of the Dean, or in the absence of the Dean, the approval of the Provost, is required.
- vi Students must be informed of changes to classroom procedures. This may be done by circulating the changes in writing to the class, posting in the departmental and faculty offices, reporting to the divisional council, as well as listing in the campus press. Should classes resume, students must be informed, at class, of any changes made during the disruption.
- vii Where changes to the classroom procedures are made, students who do not wish to complete the course under the revised procedures may withdraw without academic penalty. This must be done prior to the last day of classes.
- viii Where students have not attended classes that are meeting, they nonetheless remain responsible for the course work and meeting course requirements. However, where possible, reasonable extension of deadlines for the course requirements, or provision of make-up tests shall be made and reasonable alternative access to material covered should be provided.
- ix A student who feels, owing to his or her special circumstances, that changes to the classroom procedure have unreasonably affected his or her grade, may appeal the grade following the procedures as set out in each division.

Appeal Procedures

Bachelor of Education and Diploma in Technical Education Programs

(Students in the Master of Arts in Child Study and Education and Master of Teaching in Human Development and Curriculum programs should refer to the OISE/UT Graduate Studies Bulletin)

A. Appeal of Academic Grades

A student may discuss a disputed grade informally with the instructor(s) involved. If these discussions do not resolve the dispute, the following formal procedures may be initiated.

1. A student may appeal, in writing, a disputed grade to the instructor responsible, within two weeks of receiving the disputed grade. The student will present to the instructor a written statement detailing the grounds of the appeal and the resolution sought. The instructor will provide the student with a written statement giving the rationale for granting or denying the appeal.
2. The student may appeal the decision of the instructor, in writing, to the Chair of the Department within two weeks of receiving the decision. The Chair of the Department will seek to arbitrate the dispute. If the matter cannot be settled, the Chair of the Department, in consultation with members of the Department, will review the case and submit to the student and the instructor, in writing, the ruling of the Department and the rationale for the decision.

3. The student or instructor may, within two weeks of receipt, appeal the ruling of the Department, through the Registrar, to the Appeals Committee of the Faculty Council of OISE/UT. This committee will accept only written submissions from each party. Neither party, nor his/her representative, may appear in person before the Appeals Committee. The written submissions should include the statements issued previously by the student, instructor and Chair of the Department. The committee will review the case and, through the Registrar, submit in writing, to the parties concerned, the decision of the committee, and the rationale for the decision.
4. The student, the instructor or the Chair of the Department may, within two weeks of receipt, appeal the ruling of the Appeals Committee in writing through the Registrar, to the Divisional Appeals Committee of the Faculty Council of OISE/UT. The Chair of the OISE/UT Executive Committee will then, without undue delay, form a Divisional Appeals Committee to hear the appeal. In addition to providing written submissions, the appellant and a designated representative of OISE/UT may appear in person, with or without counsel or other advisor, and present arguments in person or by counsel/advisor. Intent to be represented by counsel, or other advisor, must be stated at the time the appeal is submitted. Written material must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the date of the appeal meeting. The Divisional Appeals Committee will hear submissions, review the case, and communicate its decision and rationale, in writing, through the Dean of OISE/UT, to the parties concerned.
5. The student may make final appeal to the Academic Appeals Board of the Governing Council of the University. An appeal to the Academic Appeals Board shall, except in exceptional circumstances, be commenced by filing a notice of appeal with the Secretary of the Board no later than ninety (90) days after receipt of the divisional decision from the Dean of OISE/UT.

B. Appeal of Failures in Practice Teaching

A student may discuss a failure of a practice teaching session with the associate teacher(s) involved. If these discussions do not resolve the dispute, the following formal procedures may be initiated.

NOTE: As associate members of the Ontario Teachers' Federation (OTF), students should be aware of the regulations made under the Teaching Profession Act.

1. A student may appeal, in writing, the failure assigned by the associate teacher to the Coordinator of Practice Teaching within two weeks of receiving the report. The student will present to the Coordinator a written statement detailing the grounds of the appeal. The Practice Teaching Coordinator will send, within three working days, a copy of the student's appeal to the associate teacher. The Practice Teaching Coordinator, in consultation with the student, the associate teacher, the principal of the school, and the faculty instructor familiar with the student's performance, will review the case and submit a written statement to the student giving the rationale for granting or denying the appeal.
2. The student or the associate teacher may, within two weeks of receipt, appeal the decision of the Practice Teaching Coordinator, through the Registrar, to the Appeals Committee of the Faculty Council of OISE/UT. This committee will accept only written submissions from each party. Neither party, nor his/her representative, may appear in person before the Appeals Committee. The written submissions should include the statements issued previously by the student, the associate teacher and the Practice Teaching Coordinator. The committee will review the case and, through the Registrar, submit in writing to the parties concerned, the decision of the committee, and the rationale for the decision.

3. The student, the associate teacher or the Practice Teaching Coordinator may, within two weeks of receipt, appeal the ruling of the Appeals Committee, through the Registrar, to the Divisional Appeals Committee of the Faculty Council of OISE/UT. The Chair of the OISE/UT Executive Committee will then, without undue delay, form a Divisional Appeals Committee to hear the appeal. In addition to providing written submissions, the appellant and a designated representative of OISE/UT may appear in person, with or without counsel or other advisor, and present arguments in person or by counsel/advisor. Intent to be represented by counsel, or other advisor, must be stated at the time the appeal is submitted. Written material must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the date of the appeal meeting. The Divisional Appeals Committee will hear submissions, review the case, and communicate its decision and rationale, in writing, through the Dean of OISE/UT, to the parties concerned.
4. The student may make final appeal to the Academic Appeals Board of the Governing Council of the University. An appeal to the Academic Appeals Board shall, except in exceptional circumstances, be commenced by filing a notice of appeal with the Secretary of the Board no later than ninety (90) days after receipt of the divisional decision from the Dean of OISE/UT.

C. Applicability of Faculty Regulations

The Registrar's Office normally handles matters regarding the applicability of faculty regulations. A student petitioning the applicability of faculty regulations will present to the Registrar a written statement detailing the grounds of the request and the resolution sought. The Registrar, in consultation with the Dean, will provide the student with a written statement giving the rationale for granting or denying the request.

Policies and Principles for Admission to the University of Toronto

1. Preamble

- a. These Policies and Principles apply to the recruitment and selection of students for admission to all programs of study at the University of Toronto which lead to a degree, diploma or certificate.
- b. These Policies and Principles supplement but do not supplant specific requirements for admission that are determined by individual academic divisions of the University. No specific requirements, however, may be inconsistent with or contravene these policies and principles.
- c. These Policies and Principles govern the conduct of all persons who officially represent the University of Toronto or anyone of its colleges, faculties, or schools in liaison with prospective students or secondary schools.
- d. These Policies and Principles constitute a commitment on the part of the University of Toronto towards secondary schools and other post-secondary institutions to share fully the responsibility for working in the best interests of education and society generally and of students individually.

2. Statement of Policies and Principles for Selection

- a. The University of Toronto admits the best possible students on the basis of academic performance and potential as required by the curricular content and, where judged relevant by the division, professional requirements of the individual degree or diploma program(s) to which the applicant seeks admission.
- b. Individual colleges, faculties, and schools may recognize a variety of achievements that they deem worthy of consideration and exemplary to other students.

- c. The University of Toronto admits students to its colleges, faculties, and schools in the expectation that students will be successful in achieving their academic goals or other academic objectives, and make significant personal and professional contributions to their communities.
- d. With the exception of the specific conditions provided for in Section 2.e, neither the University nor any of its colleges, faculties, and schools will establish requirements for admission that in any respect involve criteria, either implicit or explicit, which are based on personal characteristics such as race, ancestry, colour, ethnic origin, sex, creed, age, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, physical disability, alumni status, or actual or potential for benefaction to the University.
- e. The University of Toronto in recognition of its special responsibilities to the peoples of Metropolitan Toronto, Ontario, and Canada, and to the diversity of those peoples may, on occasions when they are deemed necessary by the Academic Board on the recommendation of the Committee on Academic Policies and Programs, establish special criteria and procedures for admission with the intention of specifically improving the participation of particular groups as students.
- f. The rate at which students complete their secondary school programs will not be taken into account in selecting students for admission.
- g. When information is available about terms of secondary school study - regular session, summer session, evening session - and about the number of times a student attempts a course, it may be taken into account in the selection process.
- h. The University may take the results of standardized tests - aptitude and achievement - into account in the selection process when they are available and relevant to the program(s) to which the applicant is seeking admission. In so doing, the University will take fully into account any instructions for statistical interpretation of test results provided by the testing agency.

3. Statement of Principles for Student Recruitment and Liaison

- a. The requirements for admission to each college, faculty, and school will be stated clearly and definitively.
- b. The dates concerning application, notification, and candidates' replies will be stated clearly.
- c. Whenever waiting lists are employed, they will be reasonable in terms of length and applicants' qualifications.
- d. In representing the University, all publications and presentations prepared by it and any of its colleges, faculties, and schools will make honest portrayals and avoid negative comments about other institutions.
- e. The University will take full responsibility for all persons who become involved formally in the recruitment process by acting as agents of the University - registrars, liaison officers, counsellors, faculty, alumni, athletic coaches, students.
- f. For undergraduate programs that can be entered directly from secondary school, the University will always be prepared and willing to cooperate with secondary schools to improve the admissions process specifically and the transition from school to university generally.
- g. The University will make announcements of admissions decisions promptly, and in the case of favourable decisions will wherever possible announce related decisions - student awards and residence - simultaneously.

4. Divisional Policies and Requirements

Individual faculties, schools and colleges may establish additional policies, procedures, and requirements for admission provided that they do not contravene the Policies and Principles for Admission to the University of Toronto

Academic Sanctions For Students Who Have Outstanding University Obligations

In order to receive University degrees or diplomas, or to be recommended for Ministry of Education and Training or Ontario College of Teachers certificates, students must have discharged all recognized University obligations: tuition fees, academic and other incidental fees, residence fees and other residence charges, library fines, bookstore accounts, loans made by colleges, faculties or the University, Health Service accounts, charges for unreturned or damaged instruments, materials and equipment, and orders for the restitution, rectification or the payment of damages, fines, bonds for good behaviour, and requirement of public service work imposed under the authority of the Code of Student Conduct.

The following academic sanctions will be imposed on students who have outstanding recognized University obligations:

- Statements of results or official transcripts of records, or both, will not be issued.
- The University will not release either the official document (normally called diploma) which declares the degree, diploma or certificate earned nor provide oral confirmations or written certification of degree status to external enquires; will not make recommendations for Ontario College of Teachers teaching certificates. Indebted graduands will be allowed to walk on stage and have their names appear on the convocation program.
- Registration will be refused to a continuing or returning student. Payments made by continuing or returning students shall be applied, first, to outstanding University debts and, second, to current fees.

All requests for transcripts of academic records, with the exception of transcripts of courses taken in the Additional Qualification Program for Teachers, must be directed to the consolidated transcript centre at the following address:

University of Toronto Transcript Centre
Room 1006, 100 St. George Street
Toronto, Ontario M5S 3G3
Telephone: (416) 978-3384
Web Sites:

- www.rosi.utoronto.ca

Requests for transcripts of courses taken in the Additional Qualification Program for Teachers should continue to be made to:

The Records Officer
OISE/UT Registrar's Office
252 Bloor Street West, Room 4-455
Toronto, Ontario M5S 1V6
Telephone: (416) 926-4743

Other than periods of the year when the demand for transcripts is especially heavy, requests will be processed within 5 - 10 working days.

Access to Official Student Academic Records

In accordance with the "Policy on Access to Student Academic Records Maintained by Undergraduate Academic Divisions of the University of Toronto", students may obtain access to their academic records upon written request to the Registrar of OISE/UT. Below are excerpts from this Policy. The full text is available in the Registrar's Office.

4 (a) Access by a Student

- i) A student may examine and have copies made of his or her official student academic record as defined in Section 3 of the Policy, with the exception of those portions of the record which comprise letters of reference, evaluations and appraisals (Section 3(b)(v)) which have been provided or obtained on the expressed or implied understanding that they shall be maintained in confidence.

Transcripts

- ii) A student's request to examine a part of his or her official student academic record shall be made in writing and shall be complied with by the responsible authorities within a division. Such compliance shall occur within 30 days of receipt of the request, or within such lesser period as a division may determine.
- iii) A student has the right to challenge the accuracy of his or her official student academic record with the exception of the material specifically excluded in Section 4(a)(i) and to have his or her official student academic record supplemented with comments so long as the sources of such comments are identified and the official student academic record remains securely within the custody of the academic division. Reference to such comments does not appear on reports such as transcripts or statements of results.
- iv) It is assumed that all documents relating to petitions and appeals (Section 3(b)(iii)) of the Policy and not provided on the understanding that they shall be maintained in confidence will be retained within a division, and when needed by a student, will be made freely available. In addition, The Statutory Powers Procedure Act, 1971 of Ontario requires that where the good character, propriety of conduct or competence of a party is in issue in any proceedings in a tribunal to which the Act applies (such as the Academic Appeals Board of the Governing Council), the party is entitled to be furnished prior to the hearing with "reasonable information" of any allegations with respect thereto.

4 (b) Access by Alumni and Former Students

- i) An alumnus or alumna or a former student may examine and have copies made of the portion of his or her official student academic record as defined in Section 3(a) of the Policy.
- ii) A request from an alumnus or alumna or a former student to examine the portion of the official student academic record as defined in Section 3(a) of the Policy, shall be made in writing and shall be complied with by the responsible authorities within a division. Such compliance shall occur within 30 days of receipt of the request, or within such lesser period as a division may determine.

- iii) An alumnus or alumna or a former student shall have the right to challenge the accuracy of his or her official student academic records only under such terms and conditions as the academic division may determine .

4 (c) Access by University Staff and Members of Official University and Divisional Councils and Standing Committees

Members of the teaching and administrative staff of the University and members of official University and divisional councils and committees shall have access to relevant portions of an official student academic record for purposes related to the performance of their duties. A staff member requesting information must have a legitimate need to have the requested information for the effective functioning of the position or office.

Where members of the teaching staff have access to official student academic records for the purpose of research, they must fully comply with the University's research policies and protocols, and shall not have access to students' names, addresses, and telephone numbers without the students' written consent.

Access to medical information as defined in Section 3(b)(iv) of the Policy shall be granted to members of the teaching and administrative staff only with the prior expressed or implied consent of the student and, if applicable, in the case of a medical assessment, the originator (physician, etc.) of such.

The Department of Alumni and Community Relations shall have access to appropriate personal information on students and alumni for the purpose of maintaining contact with alumni and their next of kin.

4 (d) Access by University Campus Organizations

Recognized campus organizations in the University of Toronto shall have access to the information referred to in Section 3(a)(ii) of the Policy as well as to the sessional address and telephone number of students named by that organization for the legitimate internal use of that organization. The Students' Administrative Council, Graduate Students' Union, Association of Part-time Undergraduate Students, and The Newspaper shall be entitled to publish and distribute within the University community a University-wide directory of students (including undergraduate, graduate, full-time and part-time) giving the sessional address and telephone number of students as long as there is a realistic provision for students to decline to consent to the disclosure of that information.

Names and addresses of students will also be provided to recognized campus organizations for the purpose of distributing information when all of the following conditions are met:

- The name and address information is not released to a third party.
- The name and address information is not used for commercial purposes.
- The organization proposes to distribute information which, in the opinion of the Assistant Vice-President (Planning) and University Registrar, the University would be willing to distribute if reimbursed by the organization.
- The information to be distributed is intended to provide information about the University and is not primarily advertisements for non-University organizations.
- The campus organization agrees to use the name and address information only for the specific purpose for which it was provided.

4 (e) Access by Others

- i) By the act of registration, a student gives implicit consent for a minimal amount of information to be made freely available to all enquiries:
  - the academic division(s), degree program(s) and the session(s) in which a student is or has been registered,
  - degree(s) received and date(s) of convocation.
- ii) Any other information contained in the official student academic record, (including any comments generated under Section 4(a)(iii) but with the exception of the material specifically excluded in Section 4(a)(i)), shall be released to other persons and agencies only with the student's prior expressed written consent, or on the presentation of a court order, or in accordance with the requirements of professional licensing or certification bodies, of the Ministry of Education and Training for an annual enrolment audit, or otherwise under compulsion of law. Requests granted to any persons or agencies outside the University for access to a student's academic record shall be kept on file within a division. The release of the information concerning alumni and former students contained in the portions of the academic record as defined in Section 3(a)(i) of the Policy shall also be governed by the above provisions.

- iii) General statistical material drawn from academic records not disclosing the identities of students, alumni and former students may be released for research and informational purposes authorized by the University, by the academic division maintaining these records.
- iv) Agencies engaged to act on behalf of the University (for example, a collection agency) may have access to relevant portions of official student academic records.

4 (f) Refusal of Access

The University reserves the right to withhold access to the statements of results and transcripts of students, alumni and former students who have outstanding debts or obligations to the University. The University may also choose not to release the official diploma to such persons nor to provide written or oral certifications of degree on their behalf.

5 Custody and Retention of Official Student Academic Records

- a) Academic records of students are normally under the custodial responsibility of the academic division. Every academic division maintaining official student academic records shall draw up plans for the eventual disposition of their records in consultation with the University Archivist and in accordance with an approved records schedule which is in compliance with this Policy.
- b) Those portions of the official student academic record as defined in Section 3(a) of the Policy shall be maintained permanently. Each academic division's records schedule shall specify the document, form or medium in which these records will be maintained.

---

- c) Official student academic records preserved in the University Archives because of their archival value shall become open to researchers authorized by the University seventy-five years after a student has ceased to be registered.

6. The University's Responsibilities with Reference to the Official Academic Records of Students, Alumni and Former Students

- a) Students shall be informed of University policy and divisional procedures with respect to their official student academic records.
- b) Academic divisions, administrative divisions which handle student academic records, and campus organizations shall develop administrative procedures in support of this Policy.
- c) Academic records shall be kept at all times under appropriate security.
- d) In the case of the Institute of Child Study Laboratory School and the University of Toronto Schools in OISE/UT, the Ontario Student Record shall be regarded as part of the Official Student Academic Record, and shall be maintained on that basis.

misrepresentation, or seeking to disadvantage others by disruptive behaviour is unacceptable, as is any dishonesty or unfairness in dealing with the work or record of a student.

Wherever in this Code an offence is described as depending on "knowing", the offence shall likewise be deemed to have been committed if the person ought reasonably to have known.

1. It shall be an offence for a student knowingly:
  - a) to forge or in any other way alter or falsify any document or evidence required by the University, or to utter, circulate or make use of any such forged, altered or falsified document, whether the record be in print or electronic form.
  - b) to use or possess an unauthorized aid or aids or obtain unauthorized assistance in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work.
  - c) to personate another person, or to have another person personate, at any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work.
  - d) to represent as one's own any idea or expression of an idea or work of another in any academic examination or term test or in connection with any other form of academic work, i.e. to commit plagiarism. (For a more detailed account of plagiarism, see Appendix "A" of the Code)
  - e) to submit, without the knowledge and approval of the instructor to whom it is submitted, any academic work for which credit has previously been obtained or is being sought in another course or program of study in the University or elsewhere.
  - f) to submit any academic work containing a purported statement of fact or reference to a source which has been concocted.

2. It shall be an offence for a faculty member knowingly:
  - a) to approve any of the previously described offences.

University Discipline

Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters

The Governing Council of the University of Toronto has approved a Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters regarding academic discipline applicable to all students and members of the teaching staff of the University. Below are excerpts from this Code. The full text is available in the Registrar's Office, the office of the Vice-President and Provost, the office of the Secretary of the Governing Council, and that of the Chair of the University Disciplinary Tribunal.

B. Offences

The University and its members have a responsibility to ensure that a climate that might encourage, or conditions that might enable, cheating, misrepresentation or unfairness not be tolerated. To this end all must acknowledge that seeking credit or other advantages by fraud or

- b) to evaluate an application for admission or transfer to a course or program of study by reference to any criterion that is not academically justified.
- c) to evaluate academic work by a student by reference to any criterion that does not relate to its merit, to the time within which it is to be submitted or to the manner in which it is to be performed.
- 3. It shall be an offence for a faculty member and student alike knowingly:
  - a) to forge or in any other way alter or falsify any academic record, or to utter, circulate or make use of any such forged, altered or falsified record, whether the record be in print or electronic form;
  - b) to engage in any form of cheating, academic dishonesty of misconduct, fraud or misrepresentation not herein otherwise described, in order to obtain academic credit or other academic advantage of any kind.
- 4. A graduate of the University may be charged with any of the above offences committed knowingly while he or she was an active student, when, in the opinion of the Provost, the offence, if detected, would have resulted in a sanction sufficiently severe that the degree would not have been granted at the time that it was.

B.II. Parties to Offences

- 1.(a) Every member is a party to an offence under this Code who knowingly:
  - i) actually commits it;
  - ii) does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding or assisting another member to commit the offence;
  - iii) does or omits to do anything for the purpose of aiding or assisting any other person who, if that person were a member, would have committed the offence;
  - iv) abets, counsels, procures or conspires with another member to commit or be a party to an offence or
  - v) abets, counsels, procures or conspires with any other person who, if that person were a member, would have committed or have been a party to the offence.

- (b) Every party to an offence under this Code is liable upon admission of the commission thereof, or upon conviction, as the case may be, to the sanctions applicable to that offence.
- 2. Every member who, having an intent to commit an offence under this Code, does or omits to do, anything for the purpose of carrying out that intention (other than mere preparation to commit the offence) is guilty of an attempt to commit the offence and liable upon conviction to the same sanctions as if he or she had committed the offence.
- 3. When a group is found guilty of an offence under this Code, every officer, director or agent of the group, being a member of the University, who directed, authorized or participated in the commission of the offence, is a party to, and guilty of, the offence and is liable upon conviction to the sanctions provided for the offence.

C. Procedures in Cases Involving Students

At both the divisional level and the level of the University Tribunal, the procedures for handling charges of academic offences involving students reflect the gravity with which the University views such offences. At the same time, these procedures and those which ensure students the right of appeal represent the University's commitment to fairness and the cause of justice.

C.I.(a) Divisional Procedures

Note: Where a student commits an offence, the faculty in which the student is registered has responsibility over the student in the matter. In the case of Scarborough, and Erindale colleges, the college is deemed to be the faculty.

- 1. No hearing within the meaning of Section 2 of the Statutory Powers Procedure Act is required for the purposes of, or in connection with, any of the discussions, meetings and determinations referred to in Section C.1.(a) and such discussions, meetings and determinations are not proceedings of the Tribunal.

2. Where an instructor has reasonable grounds to believe that an academic offence has been committed by a student, the instructor shall so inform the student immediately after learning of the act or conduct complained of, giving reasons, and invite the student to discuss the matter. Nothing the student says in such a discussion may be used or receivable in evidence against the student.
3. If after such discussion, the instructor is satisfied that no academic offence has been committed, he or she shall so inform the student and no further action shall be taken in the matter by the instructor, unless fresh evidence comes to the attention of the instructor, in which case he or she may again proceed in accordance with subsection 2.
4. If after such discussion, the instructor believes that an academic offence has been committed by the student, or if the student fails or neglects to respond to the invitation for discussion, the instructor shall make a report of the matter to the Department Chair or through the Department Chair to the Dean. (See also Section C.1.(b) 1).
5. When the Dean or the Department Chair, as the case may be, has been so informed, he or she shall notify the student in writing accordingly, provide him or her with a copy of the Code and subsequently afford the student an opportunity for discussion of the matter. In the case of the Dean being informed, the Chair of the Department and the instructor shall be invited by the Dean to be present at the meeting with the student. The Dean shall conduct the interview.
6. Before proceeding with the meeting, the Dean shall inform the student that he or she is entitled to seek advice, or to be accompanied by counsel at the meeting, before making, and is not obliged to make, any statement or admission, but shall warn that if he or she makes any statement or admission in the meeting, it may be used or receivable in evidence against the student in the hearing of any charge with respect to the alleged offence in question. The Dean shall also advise the student, without further comment or discussion, of the sanctions that may be imposed under Section C.1.(b), and that the Dean is not obliged to impose a sanction but may instead request that the Provost lay a charge against the student. Where such advice and warning have been given, the statements and admissions, if any, made in such a meeting may be used or received in evidence against the student in any such hearing.
7. If the Dean, on the advice of the Department Chair and the instructor, or if the Department Chair, on the advice of the instructor, subsequently decides that no academic offence has been committed and that no further action in the matter is required, the student shall be so informed in writing and the student's work shall be accepted for normal evaluation or, if the student was prevented from withdrawing from the course by the withdrawal date, he or she shall be allowed to do so. Thereafter, the matter shall not be introduced into evidence at a tribunal hearing for another offence.
8. If the student admits the alleged offence, the Dean or the Department Chair may either impose the sanction(s) that he or she considers appropriate under Section C.1. (b) or refer the matter to the Dean or Provost, as the case may be, and in either event shall inform the student in writing accordingly. No further action in the matter shall be taken by the instructor, the Department Chair or the Dean if the Dean imposes a sanction.
9. If the student is dissatisfied with a sanction imposed by the Department Chair or the Dean, as the case may be, the student may refer the matter to the Dean or Provost, as the case may be, for consideration.
10. If the student does not admit the alleged offence, the Dean may, after consultation with the instructor and the Department Chair, request that the Provost lay a charge against the student. If the Provost agrees to lay a charge, the case shall then proceed to the Trial Division of the Tribunal.
11. Normally, decanal procedures will not be examined in a hearing before the Tribunal. A failure to carry out the procedures referred to in this Section, or any defect or irregularity in such procedures, shall not invalidate any subsequent proceedings of or before the Tribunal, unless the Chair of the hearing considers that such failure, defect or irregularity resulted in a substantial wrong, detriment or prejudice to the accused. The Chair will determine at the opening of the hearing whether there is to be any objection to defect, failure or irregularity.

12. No degree, diploma or certificate of the University shall be conferred or awarded, nor shall a student be allowed to withdraw from a course from the time of the alleged offence until the final disposition of the accusation. However, a student shall be permitted to use University facilities while a decision is pending, unless there are valid reasons for the Dean to bar him or her from a facility. When or at any time after an accusation has been reported to the Dean, he or she may cause a notation to be recorded on the student's academic record and transcript, until the final disposition of the accusation, to indicate that the standing in a course and/or the student's academic status is under review. A student upon whom a sanction has been imposed by the Dean or the Department Chair under Section C.I.(b) or who has been convicted by the Tribunal shall not be allowed to withdraw from a course so as to avoid the sanction imposed.
13. A record of cases disposed of under Section C.I.(a) and of the sanctions imposed shall be kept in the academic unit concerned and may be referred to by the Dean in connection with a decision to prosecute, or by the prosecution in making representations as to the sanction or sanctions to be imposed by the Tribunal, for any subsequent offence committed by the student. Information on such cases shall be available to other academic units upon request and such cases shall be reported by the Dean to the Secretary of the Tribunal for use in the Provost's annual report to the Academic Board. The Dean may contact the Secretary of the Tribunal for advice or for information on cases disposed of under Section C.II. hereof.
14. Where a proctor or invigilator, who is not a faculty member, has reason to believe that an academic offence has been committed by a student at an examination or test, the proctor or invigilator shall so inform the student's Dean or Department Chair, as the case may be, who shall proceed as if he or she were an instructor, by analogy to the other provisions of this section.

15. In the case of alleged offences not covered by the procedures above and not involving the submission of academic work, such as those concerning forgery or uttering, and in cases involving cancellation, recall or suspension of a degree, diploma or certificate, the procedure shall be regulated by analogy to the other procedures of this section.

C.I.(b). Divisional Sanctions

1. In an assignment worth 10 percent or less of the final grade, the Department Chair may deal with the matter if:
  - i) the student admits guilt; and
  - ii) the assignment of a penalty is limited to at most a mark of zero for the piece of work.

If the student does not admit guilt, or if the Department Chair chooses, the matter shall be brought before the Dean.

2. One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed by the Dean where a student admits to the commission of an alleged offence:
  - a) an oral and/or written reprimand;
  - b) an oral and/or written reprimand and, with the permission of the instructor, the resubmission of the piece of academic work, in respect of which the offence was committed, for evaluation. Such a sanction shall be imposed only for minor offences and where the student has committed no previous offence;
  - c) assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for the piece of academic work in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - d) assignment of a penalty in the form of a reduction of the final grade in the course in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - e) denial of privileges to use any facility of the University, including library and computer facilities;
  - f) a monetary fine to cover the costs of replacing damaged property or misused supplies in respect of which the offence was committed;

Policies and Regulations

- g) assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for the course in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - h) suspension from attendance in a course or courses, a program, an academic division or unit, or the University for a period of not more than twelve months. Where a student has not completed a course or courses in respect of which an offence has not been committed, withdrawal from the course or courses without academic penalty shall be allowed.
3. The Dean shall have the power to record any sanction imposed on the student's academic record and transcript for such length of time as he or she considers appropriate. However, the sanctions of suspension or a notation specifying academic misconduct as the reason for a grade of zero for a course shall normally be recorded for a period of five years.
4. The Provost shall, from time to time, indicate appropriate sanctions for certain offences. These guidelines shall be sent for information to the Academic Board and attached to the Code as Appendix "C".

C.II.(b) Tribunal Sanctions

1. One or more of the following sanctions may be imposed by the Tribunal upon the conviction of any student:
- a) an oral and/or written reprimand;
  - b) an oral and/or written reprimand and, with the permission of the instructor, the resubmission of the piece of academic work, in respect of which the offence was committed, for evaluation. Such a sanction shall be imposed only for minor offences and where the student has committed no previous offence;
  - c) assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for the piece of academic work in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - d) assignment of a penalty in the form of a reduction of the final grade in the course in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - e) denial of privileges to use any facility of the University, including library and computer facilities;
- f) a monetary fine to cover the costs of replacing damaged property or misused supplies in respect of which the offence was committed;
  - g) assignment of a grade of zero or a failure for any completed or uncompleted course or courses in respect of which any offence was committed;
  - h) suspension from attendance in a course or courses, a program, an academic division or unit, or the University for such a period of time up to five years as may be determined by the Tribunal. Where a student has not completed a course or courses in respect of which an offence has not been committed, withdrawal from the course or courses without academic penalty shall be allowed.
  - i) recommendation of expulsion from the University. The Tribunal has power only to recommend that such a penalty be imposed. In any such case, the recommendation shall be made by the Tribunal to the President for a recommendation by him or her to the Governing Council. Expulsion shall mean that the student shall be denied any further registration at the University in any program and his or her academic record and transcript shall record this sanction permanently. Where a student has not completed a course or courses in respect of which an offence has not been committed, withdrawal from the course or courses without academic penalty shall be allowed. If a recommendation for expulsion is not adopted, the Governing Council shall have the power to impose such lesser penalty as it sees fit.
  - j)
    - i) recommendation to the Governing Council for cancellation, recall or suspension of one or more degrees, diplomas or certificates obtained by any graduate; or
    - ii) cancellation of academic standing or academic credits obtained by any former student who, while enrolled, committed any offence which if detected before the granting of the degree, diploma, certificate, standing or credits would, in the judgement of the Tribunal, have resulted in a conviction and the application of a sanction sufficiently severe that the degree, diploma, certificate, standing, credits or marks would not have been granted.

Policies and Regulations

2. The hearing panel shall have the power to order that any sanction imposed by the Tribunal be recorded on the student's academic record and transcript for such length of time as the panel considers appropriate.
3. The Tribunal may, if it considers it appropriate, report any case to the Provost who may publish a notice of the decision of the Tribunal and the sanction or sanctions imposed, in the University newspapers with the name of the student withheld.

Discipline in Non-Academic Matters

The Councils of the Faculties, Schools, and Institutes have disciplinary jurisdiction over the conduct of all students registered in these divisions of the University in all matters of local or internal concern of the divisions. Jurisdiction over the conduct of students while in residence rests with the body administering the residence.

Where the appropriate body exercising disciplinary jurisdiction has found that a student of the University has engaged in conduct prejudicial to the interests of the University, the Caput may, at its discretion, suspend or expel such student from the academic privileges of the University. Every decision of the Caput involving the expulsion of a student from the University requires confirmation of the Governing Council. The role of the Caput and the various councils as described above is contingent on the understanding that offences or actions or claims within the jurisdiction of criminal and civil courts will be referred where appropriate to those courts and will only be reviewed by the Caput where the implications to the University are considered sufficiently important to warrant such review.

Code of Student Conduct

A. Preface

1. The University of Toronto is a large community of teaching staff, administrative staff and students, involved in teaching, research, learning and other activities. Student members of the University are adherents to a division of the University for the period of their registration in the academic program to which they have been admitted and as such assume the responsibilities that such registration entails.

2. As an academic community, the University governs the activities of its members by standards such as those contained in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, which provides definitions of offences that may be committed by student members and which are deemed to affect the academic integrity of the University's activities.
3. The University sponsors, encourages or tolerates many non-academic activities of its members, both on its campuses and away from them. These activities, although generally separate from the defined requirements of students' academic programs, are a valuable and important part of the life of the University and of its students.
4. The University does not stand in loco parentis to its student members, that is, it has no general responsibility for the moral and social behaviour of its students, as if they were its wards. In the exercise of its disciplinary authority and responsibility, the University treats students as free to organize their own personal lives, behaviour and associations subject only to the law and to University regulations that are necessary to protect the integrity and safety of University activities, the peaceful and safe enjoyment of University housing by residents and neighbours, or the freedom of members of the University to participate reasonably in the programs of the University and in activities in or on the University's premises. Strict regulation of such activities by the University of Toronto is otherwise neither necessary nor appropriate.
5. University members are not, as such, immune from the criminal and civil laws of the wider political units to which they belong. Provisions for non-academic discipline should not attempt to shelter students from their civic responsibilities nor add unnecessarily to these responsibilities. Conduct that constitutes a breach of the Criminal Code or other statute, or that would give rise to a civil claim or action, should ordinarily be dealt with by the appropriate criminal or civil court. In cases, however, in which criminal or civil proceedings have not been taken or would not adequately protect the University's interests and responsibilities as defined below, proceedings may be brought under a discipline code of the University, but only in cases where such internal proceedings are appropriate in the circumstances.

6. The University must define standards of student behaviour and make provisions for student discipline with respect to conduct that jeopardizes the good order and proper functioning of the academic and non-academic programs and activities of the University or its divisions, that endangers the health, safety, rights or property of its members or visitors, or that adversely affects the property of the University or bodies related to it, where such conduct is not, for the University's defined purposes, adequately regulated by civil and criminal law.
7. Nothing in this Code shall be construed to prohibit peaceful assemblies and demonstrations, lawful picketing, or to inhibit freedom of speech as defined in the University.
8. In this Code, the word "premises" includes lands, buildings and grounds.
9. In this Code, "student" means a member of the University
  - (i) engaged in any academic work which leads to the recording and/or issue of a mark, grade or statement of performance by the appropriate authority in the University or another institution; and/or
  - (ii) registered in any academic course which entitles the member to the use of a University library, library materials, library resources, computer facility or dataset.
10. In the following, the words "University of Toronto" refer to the University of Toronto and include any institutions federated or affiliated with it, where such inclusion has been agreed upon by the University and the federated or affiliated institution, with respect to the premises, facilities, equipment, services, activities, students and other members of the federated or affiliated institution.

Note: The University of Toronto has agreed that, when the premises, facilities, equipment, services or activities of the University of Toronto are referred to in this Code, the premises, facilities, equipment, services and activities of the University of St. Michael's College, Trinity College and Victoria University are included.

11. In this Code, where an offence is described as depending on "knowing", the offence shall likewise be deemed to have been committed if the person ought reasonably to have known.
12. This Code is concerned with conduct that the University considers unacceptable. In the case of student members of the University, the procedures and sanctions described herein shall apply. In the case of other members of the University, such conduct is to be dealt with in accordance with the established policy, procedures and agreements that apply to the members.

B. Offences

The following offences constitute conduct that shall be deemed to be offences under this Code, when committed by a student of the University of Toronto, provided that such conduct

- (i) has not been dealt with as failure to meet standards of professional conduct as required by a college, faculty or school; and
- (ii) is not specifically assigned to the jurisdiction of the University Tribunal, as in the case of offences described in the Code of Behaviour on Academic Matters, or to another disciplinary body within the University of Toronto, as in the case of sexual harassment as described in the Policy and Procedures: Sexual Harassment and
- iii) occurs on premises of the University of Toronto or elsewhere in the course of activities sponsored by the University of Toronto or by any of its divisions.

Policies and Regulations

1. Offences against persons

- (a) No person shall assault another person sexually or threaten any other person with sexual assault.
- (b) No person shall otherwise assault another person, threaten any other person with bodily harm, or knowingly cause any other person to fear bodily harm.
- (c) No person shall knowingly create a condition that unnecessarily endangers the health or safety of other persons.
- (d) No person shall threaten any other person with damage to such person's property, or knowingly cause any other person to fear damage to her or his property.

2. Disruption

No person shall cause by action, threat or otherwise, a disturbance that the member knows obstructs any activity organized by the University of Toronto or by any of its divisions, or the right of another member or members to carry on their legitimate activities, to speak or to associate with others.

For example, peaceful picketing or other activity outside a class or meeting that does not substantially interfere with the communication inside, or impede access to the meeting, is an acceptable expression of dissent. And silent or symbolic protest is not to be considered disruption under this Code. But noise that obstructs the conduct of a meeting or forcible blocking of access to an activity constitutes disruption.

3. Offences involving property

- (a) No person shall knowingly take, destroy or damage premises of the University of Toronto.
- (b) No person shall knowingly take, destroy or damage any physical property that is not her or his own.
- (c) No person shall knowingly destroy or damage information or intellectual property belonging to the University of Toronto or to any of its members.
- (d) No person, in any manner whatsoever, shall knowingly deface the inside or outside of any building of the University of Toronto.
- (e) No person, knowing the effects or property to have been appropriated without authorization, shall possess effects or property of the University of Toronto.

- (f) No person, knowing the effects or property to have been appropriated without authorization, shall possess any property that is not her or his own.
- (g) No person shall knowingly create a condition that unnecessarily endangers or threatens destruction of the property of the University of Toronto or of any of its members.

4. Unauthorized Entry or Presence

No person shall, contrary to the expressed instruction of a person or persons authorized to give such instruction, or with intent to damage or destroy the premises of the University of Toronto or damage, destroy or steal any property on the premises of the University of Toronto that is not her or his own, or without just cause knowingly enter or remain in or on any such premises.

5. Unauthorized use of University facilities, equipment or services

- (a) No person shall knowingly use any facility, equipment or service of the University of Toronto contrary to the expressed instruction of a person or persons authorized to give such instruction, or without just cause.
- (b) No person shall knowingly gain access to or use any University computing or internal or external communications facility to which legitimate authorization has not been granted. No person shall use any such facility for any commercial, disruptive or unauthorized purpose.

Appropriate uses for University connections to external networks are described, for example, in the policy document "Appropriate Use Policy for the ONet Network".

- (c) No person shall knowingly mutilate, misplace, misfile, or render inoperable any stored information such as books, film, data files or programs from a library, computer or other information storage, processing or retrieval system.

6. False charges

No person shall knowingly or maliciously bring a false charge against any member of the University of Toronto under this Code.

7. Aiding in the Commission of an Offence

No person shall counsel, procure, conspire with or aid a person in the commission of an offence defined in this Code.

8. Refusal to comply with sanctions

No person found guilty of an offence under this Code shall refuse to comply with a sanction or sanctions imposed under the procedures of this Code.

9. Unauthorized Possession or Use of Firearms or Ammunition

No person other than a peace officer or a member of the Canadian Forces acting in the course of duty shall possess or use any firearm or ammunition on the premises of the University of Toronto without the permission of the officer of the University having authority to grant such permission.

Note: The Chief Administrative Officer of the University has been given the authority to grant such permission for the premises of the University of Toronto under the authority of the Governing Council of the University. Various officers of institutions federated with the University of Toronto have authority to grant such permission with respect to the premises of the federated institutions.

C. Hearing Procedures

1. Whenever possible and appropriate, reason and moral suasion shall be used to resolve issues of individual behaviour before resort is made to formal disciplinary procedures.
2. An Investigating Officer, who may be a student, shall be appointed annually by the principal, dean or director (hereinafter called "head") of each faculty, college or school in which students are registered (hereinafter called "division"), to investigate complaints made against student members of that division.
3. A Hearing Officer, who may be a student, shall be appointed annually by the council of each division to decide on complaints under this Code made against student members of that division.
4. If the Investigating Officer is, for any reason, unable to conduct an investigation, then the head of the division shall appoint another person as Investigating Officer for the particular case. If the Hearing Officer is, for any reason, unable to chair the hearing of any case, then the senior chair of the University Tribunal shall appoint another person as Hearing Officer for the particular case.
5. Where the head of the division has reason to believe that a non-academic offence as defined in this Code may have been committed by a student member or members of the division, the Investigating Officer will conduct an investigation into the case. After having completed the investigation, the Investigating Officer shall report on the investigation to the head of the division. If the head of the division concludes, on the basis of this report, that the student or students may have committed an offence under the Code of Student Conduct, the head of the division shall have the discretion to request that a hearing take place to determine whether the student or students have committed the offence alleged.
6. The hearing will be chaired by the Hearing Officer. The case will be presented by the Investigating Officer, who may be assisted by legal counsel. If the right to a hearing is waived, or after a hearing, the Hearing Officer will rule on the guilt of the student or students and may impose one or more sanctions as listed below. The accused student or students may be assisted by another person, who may be legal counsel.
7. Appeals against decisions of bodies acting under authority from the council of a division to hear cases arising out of residence codes of behaviour may be made to the Hearing Officer of the division, where provision therefore has been made by the council of the division.
8. Appeals against the decision of the Hearing Officer may be made to the Discipline Appeals Board of the Governing Council.
9. Where the head of a division has reason to believe that a non-academic offence may have been committed by a group of students including students from that division and from another division or divisions, the head may consult with the head of the other division or divisions involved and may then agree that some or all of the cases will be investigated jointly by the Investigating Officers of the divisions of the students involved and that some or all of the cases will be heard together by the Hearing Officer of one of the divisions agreed upon by the heads and presented by one of the Investigating Officers agreed upon by the heads.

D. Sanctions

The following sanctions or combinations of them may be imposed upon students found guilty of committing an offence under this Code.

Penalties that directly affect a student's registration in a program, such as suspension or the recommendation for expulsion, may be imposed only where it has been determined that the offence committed is of such a serious nature that the student's continued registration threatens the academic function of the University of Toronto or of any of its divisions or the ability of other students to continue their programs of study.

In addition, students found guilty may be placed on conduct probation for a period not to exceed one year, with the provision that one or more of the following sanctions will be applied if the conduct probation is violated.

1. Formal written reprimand
2. Order for restitution, rectification or the payment of damages
3. A fine or bond for good behaviour not to exceed $100
4. Requirement of public service work not to exceed 25 hours
5. Denial of access to specified services, activities or facilities of the University for a period of up to one year
6. Suspension from registration in any course or program of a division or divisions for a period of up to one year
7. Recommendation for expulsion from the University

Memorandum on the Maintenance and Use of the Records of Non-Academic Discipline Proceedings

1. When records are kept
Records shall be kept for all cases that have proceeded to a hearing and for cases where students have waived the right to a hearing.
2. Composition of Record
The Record of Proceedings on Non-Academic Discipline cases shall comprise:
  - (a) the written report of the Investigating Officer, if any;
  - (b) the Notice of Hearing (including the offence charged);
  - (c) documentary evidence filed at a Hearing;
  - (d) the decision of the Hearing Officer and the reasons therefore.
3. Publishing of Record
Decisions of the Hearing Officer, including the name of the respondent, the offence and the sanction, shall be reported to the Vice-President and Provost, who shall convey the information, anonymously and in statistical form, annually to the University Affairs Board. A Hearing Officer or the Discipline Appeals Board may recommend to the Vice-President and Provost that the nature of the offence and the sanction be published in the University newspapers. Where circumstances warrant, they may also order the publication of the name of the person found to have committed the offence. The Vice-President and Provost shall have the discretion to withhold publication of the name of the person.
4. Use of Records
Records of previous convictions may be taken into account in imposing a sanction.
5. Storage of Records
The Records of the Proceedings of Non-academic Discipline Hearings shall be stored in the office of the head of the division.
6. Records of the Investigating Officer
Where the investigation has not proceeded to a Hearing, the records and notes of the Investigating Officer may be kept and may have a bearing on the decision to prosecute in a future case.

Memorandum of Procedures for Hearings arising from the Code of Student Conduct

1. Complaints about the alleged commission of any offence under the Code of Student Conduct may be made in writing by any person ("the complainant") to the principal, dean or director ("the head") of the college, faculty or school ("the division") in which the student or students who are alleged to have committed the offence ("the accused") are or were registered.
2. The head of the division shall consider the written complaint and shall determine if the conduct complained of appears to fall under the Code of Student Conduct. If it does not appear to fall under the Code of Student Conduct, the head may take whatever other action he or she deems appropriate to the circumstances, including communication to the complainant of the conclusion he or she has drawn. Where a student's conduct comes to light after a student has left the University, the head of the division may decide to proceed, if the seriousness of the allegation warrants such action.
3. If the head of the division considers that the conduct complained of appears to fall under the Code of Student Conduct, he may request the Investigating Officer to conduct an investigation of the case and to make a report to him or her.
4. If, on the basis of the report of the Investigating Officer, the head of the division concludes that the accused may have committed an offence under the Code of Student Conduct, he or she shall have the discretion to request that a hearing take place to determine whether the accused has committed the offence alleged.
5. To initiate a hearing, the head of the division shall give written notice to the accused indicating the nature of the complaint, the offence alleged and setting a date, time and place for a hearing to provide an opportunity for the accused to respond to the allegations made. The notice shall indicate that if the accused does not appear at the hearing, the hearing may proceed in the absence of the accused.
6. The hearing will be chaired by the Hearing Officer, who shall not have been involved in the investigation leading up to the decision to request a hearing, and who shall make a decision on the basis of evidence presented at the hearing.
7. Hearings shall be conducted in an informal manner, in accordance with the principles of natural justice, and the Hearing Officer shall not be bound to observe strict legal procedures. Procedural defects will not invalidate the proceedings unless there has been a substantial wrong or denial of natural justice.
8. The parties to the hearing are the head of the division, represented by the Investigating Officer, who may be assisted by legal counsel, and the accused, who may be assisted by another person, who may be a lawyer. Both parties shall be allowed to call, examine and cross-examine witnesses and present evidence and argument.
9. Hearings shall be open to members of the University unless the Hearing Officer decides there is sufficient cause to provide otherwise.
10. The Hearing Officer is not bound to conduct the hearing according to strict rules of evidence. Evidence may be received in written or oral form.
11. The Hearing Officer may take note of matters generally within the knowledge of members of the University community.
12. The accused may waive the right to a hearing under these procedures, in which case the Hearing Officer will rule on the guilt of the accused and impose one or more of the sanctions listed in the Code of Student Conduct.
13. After a hearing, the Hearing Officer shall rule on the complaint and, where the Hearing Officer finds that the accused has committed an offence, shall impose one or more of the sanctions listed in the Code of Student Conduct and give reasons for the decision.
14. The onus and standard of proof that a student has committed the offence alleged shall be a criminal standard.
15. Any penalty or remedy shall be stayed pending the outcome of any appeal to the Discipline Appeals Board.

Student Services and Facilities

available at OISE/UT and at the University of Toronto. OISE/UT students have full access to student services and facilities provided by the University. Information on all major student services and facilities is provided in the handbook, 'Getting There'. It describes the Career Centre, Hart House activities, the Athletic Centre, Legal Aid, Health Service, Housing Service, the International Student Centre, the work of the University Ombudsperson, and the services of the Students' Administrative Council (SAC), the Association of Part-time Undergraduate Students (APUS) and the Graduate Students' Union (GSU). Copies of the handbook are given to all students at registration.

OISE/UT SERVICES AND FACILITIES

Facilities include a library, laboratories, gymnasium, swimming pool, a drama studio, a cafeteria, and a computer centre.

Education Commons

In partnership with academic programs and research initiatives, the Education Commons provides the services traditionally associated with libraries, distance learning, computing, and media centres to meet the information and technology needs of the OISE/UT community. At the main campus and through field operations, in person and through electronic means, the Education Commons seeks to provide "one-stop-shopping" for "knowledge" services. It supports and promotes the use of technology, including computers and multimedia, in all aspects of OISE/UT activity.

Users will have access to:

- a specialized collection in the field of education including:
  - extensive reference materials
  - over two thousand journal titles
  - complete microfiche holdings of the ERIC and ONTERIS document series.
  - materials on teaching the theory and methodology of curriculum from preschool through adult levels
  - Ministry of Training, Colleges and Universities documents
  - school board curriculum materials, textbooks and content resources used in Ontario schools

On the following pages is brief information about some of the student services and facilities

Student Services and Facilities

- a representative collection of children's literature
- a varied and extensive collection of computer software, video-tapes, films, slides, kits, cassettes and other materials
- specialized collections of modern language, Franco-Ontarienne and women's materials
- many electronic sources, including CD-ROMs, online databases and electronic full-text journals.

• a collection of over 8 million items located in the numerous libraries of the University of Toronto Library System

• a wide range of Internet resources including remote library catalogues

• reference assistance in accessing information for their courses, research or practice teaching assignments

• comprehensive instruction in the use of online catalogues, the searching of electronic databases and the location of education resources on the Internet

• a variety of computers which support standard productivity tools, specialized research software, and teaching/learning resources

• face-to-face and mediated learning opportunities, and telephone and in-person user support, for goals including technology operation, software use, and the educational application of technology

• a variety of multimedia production and viewing resources, including support for telecommunications, interactive video and computer graphics

• learning opportunities and knowledge through technology-mediated program delivery, electronic conferencing systems, e-mail and the World Wide Web

• other university resources to meet their information and technological needs.

More information on how the Education Commons and its staff can support your work at OISE/UT can be obtained from the main site of the Education Commons at 252 Bloor Street West, or at any of its other sites throughout OISE/UT.

Graduate Students' Association

The Graduate Students' Association (GSA) of OISE/UT is the official graduate student government at OISE/UT and is affiliated with the Graduate Students' Union of the university. All OISE/UT graduate students are members of the GSA. It is an advocacy group which lobbies on behalf of students in any and all social, cultural, and political events of interest to students. The GSA promotes and coordinates activities of students in the various departments and decision-making bodies of OISE/UT.

Indigenous Education Network (IEN)

The IEN is a self determining organization founded, within OISE/UT in 1989, by Aboriginal students. It provides an Aboriginal presence at OISE/UT and a forum for discussion on issues relating to Aboriginal education and research. The IEN includes an Aboriginal Student Caucus which is a peer support group providing direction to the IEN. Co-chairs representing both faculty and students lead the IEN.

The IEN supports Aboriginal students and their study interests in education while at OISE/UT; promotes Aboriginal education; advances research on Aboriginal issues in relation to education; and supports the development of Aboriginal curriculum at all levels of education. IEN is comprised of Aboriginal students, alumni, and faculty in initial teacher education and graduate studies in all departments at OISE/UT plus non-Aboriginal faculty and students interested in Aboriginal education and research. The IEN invites interested faculty and students to participate in its network.

International Students

A special effort is made to welcome students from abroad and to meet their special needs. On one hand, the Canadian student benefits greatly from the opportunity to work, formally and informally, with educators from other countries. On the other, we consider it an honour and an obligation, in a world so rapidly decreasing in size, to make our resources available insofar as we can, to students who plan to return to their own countries on completion of their studies. Major essays or other individual projects constitute an important part of each course. Wherever possible, international students are encouraged to select topics which will permit them to explore systematically the possible implications that the concepts under discussion have for their home situation. In addition, within the Collaborative Program in Comparative, International, and Development Education many courses are offered which deal specifically with educational issues in non-Canadian contexts, and which are particularly suited to international students.

International Students' Association

OISE/UT's International Students' Association (ISA) arranges "buddies" for incoming students from abroad; holds an orientation meeting and monthly luncheon meetings for academic and cultural exchange, and holds social and cultural events and activities. It works jointly with other organizations to serve international students interests and represents international students on committees and councils established at OISE/UT. It helps international students become inextricably woven into the fabric of the OISE/UT community. The ISA represents the international students' perspective on issues, concerns and problems that require a collective solution and looks into the specific needs of the international students. The ISA is also represented on the GSA General Council.

Kidspace Day Care

Kidspace Inc. Day Care is a non-profit centre that provides daycare for children of staff, students, and faculty at OISE/UT. Kidspace is licensed to care for a maximum of 24 children between the ages of two-and-a-half and five. The children are cared for by qualified teachers who provide group and individual activities designed to promote gross and fine motor skills, language development, cognitive skills, and social and emotional growth. Children wishing to attend Junior or Senior Kindergarten are accompanied to Huron Public School in the afternoon.

Kidspace is open Monday to Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Part-time care is available. Fee subsidies are available but must be applied for to the Metro Toronto Children's Services Department.

UNIVERSITY-WIDE SERVICES AND FACILITIES

Aboriginal Student Services and Programs - First Nations House

First Nations House, located in the Borden Building North at 563 Spadina Avenue, houses the Office of Aboriginal Student Services and Programs (OASSP), founded in 1992, and the Native Students Association. The House provides culturally supportive student services and programs to Aboriginal students at the University of Toronto. Leadership, spiritual growth and academic excellence is the motto of First Nations House.

First Nations House provides a home for Aboriginal people on campus, a place for the Native community in Toronto to interface with the university, and a place where the university community can learn about Native people.

Local transportation	370
Miscellaneous:	3,500
TOTAL	14,987

•Student Housing

Most of the University's students live at home in Toronto. The balance are divided equally between those who reside on campus in a student residence and those who locate off-campus accommodation within approximately 30 to 45 minutes travel time from classes. The University of Toronto Housing Service in the Koffler Student Services Centre serves as a year-round source of up-to-date off-campus housing and residence information as well as other information a student might need to assist in locating and arranging suitable student housing. Students needing more information regarding their student housing options should contact the Housing Service.

Student housing information is available on the Internet at:

•On-Campus Residences

Residences for single, graduate and undergraduate students are located on all three campuses of the University. You should contact the residence directly to inquire about application. At the Housing Service on the St. George campus, students may use the Residence Information Terminal to view photographs and get information for the residences on all three campuses. If you are unable to get the information you need on the Internet, contact the Housing Service at the address on the following page.

•Family Housing

Family housing is available in 710 apartments on the St. George campus and in 84 apartments on the Erindale campus. Priority for the unfurnished, university apartments is given to student families. The term "family" refers to students residing with their dependent children and to childless couples in a permanent relationship. Waiting periods for these apartments may vary depending on the time of year and the type of apartment requested, so it is advisable to apply as soon as a student is seriously considering attending the University. Students may submit an application for Family Housing before being given an offer of admission to the University. Contact Family Housing at the University Housing Service to receive an information/application package.

•Off-Campus Housing

Each campus Housing Service maintains listings of available off-campus housing advertised by city landlords and by students seeking others to join them. Students who are looking for off-campus housing use the lists of advertisements displayed in their Housing Services as they would the classified section of a newspaper locating accommodation to meet their needs while staying in temporary housing which they arrange in advance of their arrival. At the Housing Service on the St. George campus, students may also search on-line by type(s) of accommodation, area(s) of the city, and price range desired. The Housing Service at the Koffler Student Services Centre will provide a list of temporary accommodation on request.

For the Fall and Winter academic sessions, some students rent their long-term housing from August 1 or October 1, avoiding the September 1 occupancy date which is popular with students at most post-secondary educational institutions in the city. Housing is usually advertised about four to six weeks in advance of the date it becomes available for occupancy and it generally takes one to three weeks for a student to locate suitable accommodation, depending on the type of housing desired and budget.

NOTE: Since accommodation is not inspected, the quality cannot be estimated or guaranteed. Therefore it is very important for students to meet with the landlord and inspect the premises before entering any agreement.

Cost of Student Housing - Residence, Family Housing and Off-Campus

As a guideline, for the 1999/2000 school term, the cost of residence with a full meal plan was approximately $5,500 to $6,300 for the eight-month, academic year. Modified meal plans are available in some residences. After paying an initial deposit, the balance of fees are usually paid in two installments at the beginning of each of the four-month Fall and Winter sessions. As of August 1, 1998, rent for the bachelor, one- or two-bedroom units located in the Student Housing Complex located at 30/35 Charles St. West range from approximately $460 to $752 depending on the size of the unit, and is payable monthly. Rooms in shared houses or apartments off-campus generally cost students $350 to $500 per month. However, a student requiring a private apartment off-campus usually pays $500 to $650, $600 to $750, and $750 to $1,000 for a bachelor, one- or two-bedroom unit respectively. A three-bedroom house will usually rent for $1,100 to $1,400.

DISABILITY Services for Students

The mandate of DISABILITY Services for Students is to facilitate the inclusion of students with disabilities and chronic health conditions into university life. Students first meet with an intake counsellor to discuss their individual needs. Where appropriate and for those eligible, students may then be referred to one of the professionals on staff, such as the Adaptive Equipment Consultant, Learning Disability Specialist, Psychologist or Occupational Therapist to establish strategies and determine accommodations for academic success. All discussions are confidential and information is disclosed only with permission of the student.

Status of Women Office

The Status of Women Office was established in 1984 in order to address inequities experienced by women at the University and to promote policy development in areas of particular relevance to women. The mandate of the Status of Women Office encompasses the improvement of the status of all women in the University community (students, staff and faculty). This involves the identification and removal of systemic and other barriers, which in turn necessarily involves changes in policy, practice and attitude.

The Status of Women Office produces an electronic newsletter (Women on the Wire - WOW) with information on events and brief articles on issues and topics of interest. WOW can be accessed through the website of the Status of Women Office, the Equity Issues Advisory Group or the University of Toronto.
